MISCELLANEOUS:

- Hornell High School has asked to use the tennis courts at James Street Park for, both, the boys and girls tennis teams. This request was approved. Ayes All.
- Allegany/Steuben ARC has requested to use the basketball courts from March 28-April 18, between the hours of 4:30-6:00pm. This request was approved. Ayes All

Rich Dunning said that the UV project kicked off last week. Matt Higgins led the meeting and described the project and the requirements to the contractors that were there and they toured the site, as well. The bid opening for that project is set for today at 2:00pm. They had a meeting, last week, with HP Hood to discuss having better communication and to discuss their bill. Jim Carney is doing well with training at the plant.

Mitch Cornish said that the DPW is doing some clean up around town. Trying to get the street sweeper out. They are cleaning the park and around town. Working on some concrete on North Church Street, handicapped ramps.

Lenny Fucci said that Caleb Mitchell is learning about the plant and sampling, learning the terminology. They had to do a lot of ditch digging due to the flooding they had a couple weeks ago. Drainage has changed since the project. He said that he wants to get Caleb into the pesticide training course. Plant is running well. The polymer machines were installed this week and they had a lot of issues with the installation. It took three days and they had to deal with at least eight leaks.
