

A Message from the Chamber...

Glendale Heights Chamber Hosts Second Breakfast Club Event

On Wednesday, August 20, the Glendale Heights Chamber of Commerce hosted its second Breakfast Club event at the Glendale Heights Sports Hub. The event welcomed both familiar faces from April's inaugural Breakfast Club and first-time attendees, creating a mix of members from local businesses, not-for-profit organizations, and the Village of Glendale Heights staff.

The morning began with informal networking and conversation over a variety of breakfast items. Afterward, attendees gathered to introduce themselves and share a bit about their organizations. The discussion then shifted to member engagement, as attendees were invited to share why they joined the Chamber and what support they hope to receive as members.

Common themes included a desire for networking opportunities, volunteer involvement, community engagement, and enhanced communication between members. Chamber Board members were also in attendance to connect directly with members and hear their feedback.

A key goal of the Chamber is to offer events at various times of the day to better accommodate members' diverse schedules. After a break from morning gatherings since April, we were excited to bring back a Breakfast Club event and look forward to continuing to offer engaging opportunities for connection and growth.
