

A Message from the Chamber...

La Rosita Fresh Market Hosts Chamber's Breakfast Club

On Wednesday, November 17, the Glendale Heights Chamber of Commerce held its quarterly Breakfast Club at La Rosita Fresh Market, located at 500 E. North Avenue in Glendale Heights. The event welcomed a mix of familiar faces and first-time attendees, bringing together representatives from local businesses, not-for-profit organizations, and staff from the Village of Glendale Heights. A special welcome was extended to Mayor Rebecca Giannelli, who was able to attend her first Breakfast Club gathering.

The morning began with informal networking and conversation over a selection of breakfast treats, including fresh fruit from La Rosita and pastry items prepared by the market's bakery. Guests also enjoyed Champurrado—a traditional Mexican hot beverage—courtesy of the host member.

Following breakfast, attendees gathered to introduce themselves and share a bit about their organizations. This Breakfast Club's question invited participants to describe how their organizations give back during the holiday season.

It was inspiring to hear about the many ways Chamber members support the community, including organizing Thanksgiving food basket donations, volunteering at Feed My Starving Children, taking children Christmas shopping, assisting with coat distribution events for youth, providing food to Veterans, delivering food to families who are unable to shop at stores, and hosting donation boxes on behalf of local food pantries.

A special thank-you goes to La Rosita Fresh Market for being the Chamber's first member business to host a Breakfast Club event. For several attendees, it was their inaugural visit—and many remarked on the delicious aromas coming from La Rosita Taqueria as preparations began for the lunch crowd.

For incredible tacos, tortas, burritos, and market items, be sure to visit La Rosita Fresh Market!
