Stage 1 Open Call

STAGE 1 - APPLY

Bands and solo acts, with all members born in 2007 or later, are invited to submit an application and get the chance to be selected for the live auditions in March. The application requires two pieces of original music.

Deadline for applications: 14 March 2026

Stage 2 Live Auditions

STAGE 2 - AUDITIONS

Twelve acts will be selected to present their original music live in front of an artistic committee. Focusing on musicality, technical ability and stage presence, the committee will select the final six acts to take part in mentoring sessions and perform at Fengaros High 2026.

Live Auditions: 28-29 March 2026

Online Mentoring Sessions: 21-22 April 2026

Stage 3 Concert

STAGE 3 - CONCERT

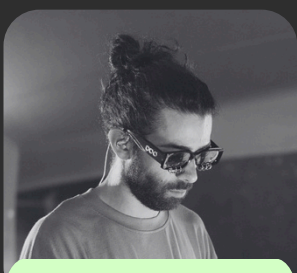

Following the standards of Fengaros Festival, the concert will take place on 9 May 2026 at the Dali Municipality Amphitheatre. The final six acts will get to perform in front of an audience which will then vote for their favourite performance. The night will be presented by Elena Olympiou.

Win Win!

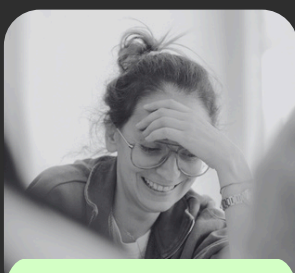

STAGE 4 - WIN WIN

Once all six acts perform, a live voting procedure will take place. The most voted act will receive a €2,000 voucher to record at Studio eleven63 and the top three winners will all get to perform at Fengaros Festival. All six finalists will attend free masterclasses with the artistic committee and attend Fengaros Music Village for half the price.

Artist's Bio (up to 500 characters long): * Drawing inspiration from the music that has served as the soundtrack of their adolescence, BUZZ aims to capture and embellish the sense of youthful freedom and rebellion in their music. Rooted in punk, BUZZ takes different creative routes with each song, exploring indulgently progressive thrash metal or reflective, socially aware ballads. At other times, they use their hard rock sound to amplify the angered voice of their generation, calling for change in the status quo and taking immediate action. BUZZ reminds us of what it means to be a teenager and the idealism that has inspired young people across generations.
