MARCH

2026

Our group crafted Heart Suncatchers. Thanks to the sunny days this month, we really got to enjoy all their hard work!

On Valentine's Eve, our residents were treated to a Prime Rib Meal. Valentine's Day did not go unnoticed from our community. We received cards from the school, community residents, and a special visit from PFCU and their mascot. Thank You for sending your love.

Fat Tuesday was celebrated with many pictures (check Facebook), word games, and a trivia contest. Beads were tossed left and right.

LEPRECHAUN

The image of the leprechaun has become a popular symbol of Ireland and is often associated with St. Patrick's Day celebrations. While the modern perception of the leprechaun is a mischievous looking little being dressed in a green suit and top hat, the fairy legends have a very different portrayal of them. Leprechauns traditionally took the form of an old man with a white or red beard. They were no larger than a child, wore hats, and were usually depicted sitting on toadstools. They had old, wrinkled faces. Leprechauns are not just whimsical figures; they embody the rich cultural heritage of Ireland, representing the cleverness and resilience of the Irish people throughout history.

Spring's

Health Effects

Vitamin D Boost: With longer daylight hours, people get more exposure to sunlight, which helps the body produce Vitamin D, essential for bone health and immune system function.

Mood Improvement: The increase in sunlight during spring is known to improve mood and decrease symptoms of depression, thanks to the boost in serotonin levels, a neurotransmitter associated with feelings of happiness.

Allergy Onset: For many, spring is synonymous with allergies. Pollen from blooming plants and flowers can trigger allergic reactions, affecting millions worldwide.

Funnies Page

One afternoon an old guy sees a kid ride past on his bike with a roll of chicken wire. The old guy asks: "Where are you heading with that chicken wire son?"

"I'm gonna catch some chickens down at the park".

"You don't catch chickens with chicken wire" The old feller shakes his head. Half an hour later, the kid rides past with 3 chickens bundled up in the chicken wire. "Well, I'll be hornswoggled".

The next day the kid rides past with a roll of duck tape on the handlebars of his bike. The old guy asks:

"Where are you heading with that duck tape son?"

"I'm gonna catch me some ducks down at the pond".

"You don't catch ducks with duck tape son" The old feller shakes his head. Half an hour later, the kid rides past with 3 ducks wrapped up in the duck tape. "Well, I'll be hornswoggled".

The next day the kid rides past with a couple of stalks of catkin willow. The old guys says:

"Hang on a second. I'll get my hat'.

Son: "How many tickles does it take to make an octopus laugh?"

Me: "I don't know; how many?"

Son: "Ten tickles."

Me: "Yeah, but only the male octopus is ticklish."

Son: "Huh?"

Me: "Yeah, the females are not ticklish at all; just the males. You know how you can tell if an octopus is a male octopus?"

Son: "No; how?"

Me: "Test tickles."

Son: "..."

Son: "...that's inappropriate."

Everyone asked a 100-year-old man and his 98-year-old wife for their health secrets.

The old man said "I'll tell you my secret. I've been married for 75 years. I promised my wife when we got married that when we quarrel, the loser must walk for 5 miles. So, I've been walking 5 miles every day for past 75 years! Everyone applauded and asked again, "But how come your wife is very healthy as well?" The old man answered "That is another secret. For 75 years every single day she has been following me to make sure I really walk the full 5 miles.

Spring Now Blooms

Catherine Pulsifer

March, oh sweet and lovely March

Brings with it a joyous arc

Gone are winter's dreary days

As Spring now blooms in wondrous array

Buds on trees and blossoms bright

Warm sunshine, such a delight

Birds sing sweetly, all day long

March brings nature's rhapsodic song
