6. Any uncooperative or unsportsmanlike conduct before, during, or after the competition.

7. Appearing in the crown and sash at any event without an official invitation from an authorized event coordinator or event board member. The Junior Miss must be accompanied by a West End Fair authorized chaperone 21 or older.

DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES

Scholarship winner will bear the title for One year:

During that time the winner will have duties that include attendance at multiple functions throughout the year. Failure to attend most planned events may result in disqualification.

1. Opening Ceremony For the West End Fair: Is always opening day of the fair (Sunday 23, 2026). The exact time will be on the westendfair.com website. Please reach out to the West End Fair Queen committee if needed. This is where the winner of the scholarship is announced. There is no prior notice of the winner until it is announced on stage.
2. The West End Fair: Plan to be available during the week of the West End Fair, as many obligations will take place throughout that time by helping with fair events, etc. Attendance at every single event is not required, provided by the fair queen committee is notified in advance and excuses of any conflicts due to any commitments.
3. Community Events: Plan on one event a month. Not all months will have an event, and some invites may come 2 weeks before an event has invited us to attend. Some will be agricultural events and some will be community based.
4. Opening Ceremony to Pass the Title: As your reign ends, you will be crowning the new scholarship winner for the next year at the opening ceremony. This is where you will also have an opportunity to share with the fair-goers for farewell speech.

PHOTOGRAPHY, VIDEO, & AUDIO RECORDING CONSENT FORM

The West End Fair may take photographs, video recordings, and audio recordings of contestants and participants during events, interviews, exhibits, and activities. These materials may be used for promotional, educational, archival, or publicity purposes, including but not limited to West End Fair exhibits and displays, local newspapers and television, West End Fair publications and programs, the West End Fair website, social media platforms, and other digital or print media. Because applicants may be minors, permission is required before any photographs, video, or audio recordings may be used. For this reason, the application includes a consent section that must be signed by both the contestant/applicant and a parent or legal guardian. These signatures acknowledge that the parent/guardian and applicant understand how media from the event may be used and provide or decline permission accordingly. No compensation will be provided for the use of these materials.

SIGNATURE 7 AGREEMENT

Participation in the West End Fair Junior Miss Scholarship Program requires acknowledgment that all information provided in the application has been read and understood. The application outlines important details including eligibility requirements, application procedures, important dates, judging criteria, scholarship information, dress code, behavior expectations, duties, responsibilities, and all rules and regulations established by the West End Fair Queen Committee. Because the program includes expectations for conduct and participation, both the contestant/applicant and a parent or legal guardian are required to sign the application. These signatures confirm that all guidelines and policies have been reviewed, that participation in the program is understood to be a privilege, and that the contestant agrees to follow all rules and decisions made by the Committee. Signing the application also confirms that the information submitted is accurate and truthful to the best of the applicant's and parent/guardian's knowledge, and acknowledges that failure to follow the program's expectations may result in disqualification or dismissal from the program.
