Traditional Funeral with Burial

Basic Services of the Funeral Director and Staff $ 2,300

This service charge reflects the duties of the funeral director and staff attendants who assist your family through the grieving process. The duties include clerical, administrative, and professional skills that only a funeral director can legally provide, as well as initial caretaking and sheltering of your loved one at the time of death.

Professional Services by a Licensed Funeral Director

Embalming $ 700

We offer this service to provide temporary preservation of the body and to reduce potential internal and external health hazards.

Preparation of the Body, Dressing, and Casketing $400

Washing and disinfecting of the body, professional attiring of the body with clothing provided by the family, arranging the body in the casket, and basic cosmetology. External hair stylists and make up artists require additional fees.

Reconstruction, Autopsy, Organ Donation Repair $250

This service is provided by a licensed embalmer when a body may need cosmetic reconstruction due to the cause of death, autopsy, or other post mortem medical activities.

Custody and Cooling $25

Daily surcharge for sheltering and cooling a body until burial.

Casket Selection $995 - $9,300

Prices are determined according to specific selection and personalizations by the family. A complete list is available on site for all merchandise present.

Outer Burial Containers $790 - $3,496

A complete list is available on site for outer burial containers.

Direct and Immediate Burial $3,270

A direct and immediate burial (without embalming, visitation, or funeral) is comprised of the basic services of a funeral director and staff, and transportation to the funeral home and to the graveside. This does not include a grave opening/closing fee, nor does it include the price of the burial container.

Traditional Cremation Services

Direct Cremation

$ 2,400

A direct cremation is an economical selection for families who prefer a quick cremation without a memorial service. This service includes the Basic Services of a Funeral Director and Staff, the filing of all necessary legal and administrative documents, transfer of deceased to the funeral home, the cremation and associated fees, and a basic urn.

Cremation with a Memorial Service

$ 2,700

The family may receive friends for two hours prior to a Memorial Service at Thomas Funeral Home. The Memorial Service is personalized per the family's requests. This package includes the Basic Services of a Funeral Director and Staff, the filing of all necessary legal and administrative documents, transfer of deceased to the funeral home, the cremation and associated fees, and a basic urn.

Traditional Funeral Service with Cremation Following

$ 4,300

A traditional visitation and funeral allow a family to view the body and say farewell. The body is embalmed and casketed for visitation and viewing, and then cremated.

Please note that these packages do not include additional items such as certified death certificates, multimedia keepsakes, or personalized urns.

Commemorative Events

Grave Opening and Closing Fee

$800 - $850

We are pleased to offer this fee at cost. When able, we use R&B Graveservice to open and close graves. Unfortunately, some cemeteries require usage of their own crew and have separate fees. This fee is located on Professional, Administrative, and Cash Advances on your Statement of Goods and Services.

Audio-Visual Commemorative Experiences

Our chapel is equipped with two 80in screens with the capacity to share video tributes, still photos, recorded live music, and recorded special messages for families.

In the past, we have played video messages, well-wishes, and homilies from friends and ministers who are unable to be present for the ceremony. We are happy to live-stream services so that friends and families may join from any location.

These services are complimentary to families and are options to connect family and friends across the globe.

Please note: We promise to test your media messages thoroughly, and hope you understand that technology is imperfect. We offer these services to connect our families with their support system in every available capacity.
