THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

January 25, 2026

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 4:12-23

I was 22 years old, lying in bed one night while on a pilgrimage, when I suddenly sensed an idea in my mind: "Go to the seminary." There was no voice, no vision, but a gentle and unmistakable clarity. I simply prayed, "Lord, if that's from you, let me find great joy in it." Three days later, my heart was bursting with joy. I dropped everything and entered the seminary. The older I get, the stranger my rather careless and hasty departure seems to me. I followed not because it made sense, or because I was especially brave. I went because the Lord called me.

Something like this happens in today's Gospel. Jesus walks by Simon, Andrew, James, and John and says, "Come after me" (Matthew 4:19). And immediately they leave their nets and follow. There's no explanation, no hesitation ... just movement. Why? As St. John says, "In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us" (1 John 4:10). They do not leave their nets because his call made perfect, calculable sense. They left them because they were called. And Jesus' call is powerful.

Take a moment this week to remember when Christ first called you. However small or quiet it was, recall it, and give thanks. The more we marvel that Christ has called us personally, the more passionately and freely we will follow him.

— Father John Muir

Discovering God's Plan for your Life

High Schoolers and Young Adults: Join us for a Vocations Evening with guest speaker Father Rhett Williams.

An evening with dinner, fellowship, and prayer.

Discover what a vocation truly is and why God calls each of us in a unique way. Learn how to begin discerning God's plan for your life through prayer, trust, and everyday choices- whether called to the vocation of marriage, priesthood, religious life, or single life. This night is for youth and young adults who want clarity, purpose, and deeper faith. Come be inspired to trust God's timing and take your next step in faith.

When: Saturday, February 7th at 6:00 pm

Where: Parish Hall

Dinner will be served
....let us know if you can make it!

Fr. Rhett Williams is Director of Vocations for the Diocese of Charleston and pastor at St. Thomas More Church, which serves the campus of the University of South Carolina in Columbia.
