THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

Reflection for October 4, 2026

Twenty Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

Lectionary 139

In Jesus' teachings this Sunday, we are presented with the "Parable of the Vineyard and the Wicked Tenants." We reflect on God, the owner and creator of the vineyard. "The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel", (Isaiah 5:7). He entrusts His vineyard to tenants who live within the vineyard and are responsible for caring for it. The tenants are the elders of the Jewish faith, and they do not bear fruit for God. Instead, when God reminds the tenants of their responsibility, they beat and kill those who God has sent to remind them. The messengers are the prophets. In the end, Jesus Christ, the Son and Word of God is sent. The elders even kill Him. We are invited in faith to view this parable in a more personal way. St. Ambrose who is noted as a Doctor of the Church and partially responsible for the conversion of St. Augustine, wrote while he was the Bishop of Milan (374-397) about our souls being the Vineyard of God. He tells us that within our soul, God asks us to bear good fruit that we can share with Him by sharing it with others. In Galatians 5:22-23 we hear "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law." As he created the vineyard in the parable, God also created us. In Psalm 139:13-14 we hear, "You formed my inmost being; you knit me in my mother's womb. I praise you, because I am wonderfully made; wonderful are your works! My very self you know. God has built a hedge of protection around us, (Job 1:10), and given us His Holy Spirit as our watchtower, (Isaiah 30:21). It is our responsibility as good tenants to bear good fruit in the life that God has given us. Let us strive to be faithful and obedient tenants in the vineyard in which God has planted us.

It is with great joy that we celebrate the 98th birthday of Holy Family's dear Frances! Surrounding Frances are her very musical friends and family: granddaughter Maria, daughter Theresa, Fr. Christopher, son-in-law Ray & Dr. Kane.

On September 18, Dr. Kane had the privilege of playing a recital in her hometown of Morristown, NJ at Assumption Church where her grandfather served as organist through the 1930's & 1950's. Jerseyites, especially, may enjoy watching! The concert even featured the Morristown HS choir singing an "Ave Maria" composed by Dr. Kane's grandfather, Charles Meys.

GOSPEL EXAMINATION

St. Paul tells us not to be anxious, but instead to bring everything to God through prayer and thanksgiving, focusing our minds on whatever is true, honorable, just, and pure.

Practice 5 Minutes of Silence: Each morning or evening this week, sit in silence for five minutes. Hand over your specific worries to God using Paul's advice: "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God."

Desde la fe

¿POR QUÉ OCTUBRE ES EL MES DEL ROSARIO?

- 1 En el siglo XVI los musulmanes habían invadido Europa ocupando la Península Ibérica y asolando los demás países durante más de ocho siglos.
- 2 En esa situación se aliaron cuatro naciones europeas para organizar una armada, una flota, para acabar con la temible armada turca.
- 3 El 7 de octubre de 1571 se llevó a cabo la famosa batalla de Lepanto, en la que salió derrotada la flota turca y las armas de la cristiandad obtuvieron la victoria.
- 4 Mientras se llevaba a cabo esta acción de guerra, en Roma se hacían procesiones y se rezaban rosarios por la victoria europea.
- 5 El 7 de octubre de 1572 el Papa San Pío V instituyó la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de las Victorias; un año después, se cambió por la de Nuestra Señora del Santo Rosario, por atribuirle a esta oración la gracia de la libertad.
