THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

October 5, 2025

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 17:5-10

A priest friend of mine received a call from a family whose elderly mother was dying. Within thirty minutes, he was at her bedside, offering the consolation of the sacraments, anointing her with the oil of the sick, and commending her soul to God. She passed not long after, and for months, her family spoke of their deep gratitude for his presence. When I phoned him to commend his faithful ministry, he simply said, "I was just doing my job."

His words brought to mind Jesus' teaching this week in Luke 17:10: "So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.'" In a world that often seeks recognition and applause, the Lord invites us into a different mindset — one of humble service. The priest did not see his response as extraordinary; he saw it as a grace to fulfill his vocation. How tempting it is to seek affirmation for doing what I ought to do! Yet Jesus reminds us that true discipleship is not about grandstanding but about quiet faithfulness. It is enough to have served. It is enough to have loved. It is enough to be grateful that we were given the chance to do our duty in the first place. Whether in priesthood, parenthood, or any vocation, what peace-soaked freedom there is in simply doing what is asked of us. No more, no less. Jesus, that is how you quietly love us.

OCTOBER 2025

SCRIPTURE

Read Mt 13:1-23

REFLECT:

1. Why do you think Jesus uses this image of the “sower” to talk about the Kingdom of God? What can we ascertain from pondering the figure of the sower and his behavior in this passage?
2. What might the different types of soil tell us about receptiveness to the Gospel message? How might this affect how we think about evangelizing?
3. What type of soil do you think you are at this moment? What areas of potential growth can you identify?

READ: A selection from Via Fidelis — Chapter 3

When we hear the word “evangelization,” we often imagine knocking on people’s doors or preaching on a streetcorner. While such efforts are sometimes helpful, this is not how most of us will be called to evangelize.

Rather, evangelization begins by walking alongside the people who God has placed in our lives — our family members, friends, neighbors and co-workers. We form relationships with them and meet them where they are. This is what Jesus did when he first began to walk with the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, asking about them and listening to their worries and fears.

In the context of this relationship, we can help to gradually establish trust and clear away obstacles that might hinder the person’s relationship with God. By being approachable and joyful in living our faith, they can feel comfortable to inquire or pose questions to us about God.

This is a gradual process of “clearing the soil” so that their hearts might be better prepared to receive the seeds of faith, so that the seeds of faith can land in good soil rather than rocky soil (Mt 13:1-9). This preparation can be called “pre-evangelization.”

REFLECT:

1. In this passage, the bishop talks about the importance of relationships. Why do you think this is such a key component for the process of evangelization?
2. The image invoked here from Emmaus is one of walking together with others. How does this inform our understanding of our baptismal mission to make disciples?
3. In what ways does understanding ourselves in the context of the soil in the “Parable of the Sower” help us to understand others? In what ways can we “cultivate the soil” in the hearts of those we walk with?

Memorial of Thérèse de Lisieux, October 1

As a communion meditation on October 5, the choir will sing a setting of a poem written by St. Thérèse de Lisieux, the Little Flower of Jesus, called "Mon Chant Aujourd'hui" ("My Song of Today"). St. Therese's text is aptly paired in a partner song (also known as a "quodlibet") with the first verse of Kathleen Thomerson's "I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light." We praise and thank God for this remarkable saint who knew that to get to heaven: "I need not grow. On the contrary, I must remain little, I must become still less."

"Mon Chant Aujourd'hui" ("My Song of Today")

Oh! how I love Thee, Jesus! my soul aspires to Thee –
And yet for one day only my simple prayer I pray!
Come reign within my heart, smile tenderly on me,
Today, dear Lord, today.

But if I dare take thought of what the morrow brings –
That fills my fickle heart with dreary, dull dismay;
I crave, indeed, my God, trials and sufferings,
But only for today!

O sweetest Star of heaven! O Virgin, spotless, blest,
Shining with Jesus' light, guiding to Him my way!
O Mother! 'neath thy veil let my tired spirit rest,
For this brief passing day!

Soon shall I fly afar among the holy choirs,
Then shall be mine the joy that never knows decay;
And then my lips shall sing, to heaven's angelic lyres,
The eternal, glad today!

"Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice,
here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word;
always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love."

— St. Therese of Lisieux

JOHN PAUL II STUDENTS & THE UNITED WAY OF THE LOWCOUNTRY

Recently, JP II seniors took part in a powerful Poverty Simulation with United Way of the Lowcountry, stepping into the daily struggles faced by families living in poverty. For three hours, the Class of 2026 juggled job loss, rent payments, transportation issues, and unexpected expenses—each decision bringing home the reality of life on the financial edge. This eye-opening experience launches their Capstone service projects and reminds students of their call to serve with empathy and action.

"This simulation challenges us to reflect on service, empathy, and social responsibility," shared JP II President David Lima. "Our seniors are ready to lead with faith, compassion, and purpose."

PROCLAMAR LA FE AÑO 1: GUÍAS DE ESTUDIO

Las guías de estudio mensuales se pueden utilizar en la oración personal y para la reflexión en grupos pequeños.

2025 DE OCTUBRE

SAGRADA ESCRITURA

Leer Mateo: 13:1-23

REFLEXIÓN:

1. ¿Por qué crees que Jesús usa esta imagen del “sembrador” para hablar del Reino de Dios?
¿Qué podemos concluir al reflexionar sobre la figura del sembrador y su comportamiento en este pasaje?
2. ¿Qué nos dicen los diferentes tipos de suelo sobre la receptividad al mensaje del Evangelio?
¿Cómo podría esto afectar nuestra forma de pensar sobre la evangelización?
3. ¿En qué tipo de suelo crees que te encuentras en este momento? ¿Qué áreas de crecimiento potencial identificas?

LEER: Una selección de Via Fidelis — Capítulo 3

Cuando escuchamos la palabra “evangelización”, a menudo nos imaginamos tocando puertas o predicando en una esquina. Si bien estos esfuerzos a veces son útiles, no es así como la mayoría de nosotros estamos llamados a evangelizar. Más bien, la evangelización comienza acompañando a las personas que Dios ha puesto en nuestras vidas: nuestros familiares, amigos, vecinos y compañeros de trabajo. Forjamos relaciones con ellos y los encontramos donde están. Esto es lo que hizo Jesús cuando comenzó a caminar con los dos discípulos en el camino a Emaús, preguntándose por ellos y escuchando sus preocupaciones y temores. En el contexto de esta relación, podemos ayudar a establecer gradualmente la confianza y a eliminar los obstáculos que podrían obstaculizar la relación de la persona con Dios. Al ser accesibles y vivir nuestra fe con alegría, pueden sentirse cómodos para preguntarnos o hacernos preguntas sobre Dios. Este es un proceso gradual de “preparación del terreno” para que sus corazones estén mejor preparados para recibir las semillas de la fe, de modo que estas puedan caer en tierra fértil y no en terreno pedregoso (Mt 13,1-9). Esta preparación puede llamarse preevangelización.

REFLEXIÓN:

1. En este pasaje, el obispo habla de la importancia de las relaciones. ¿Por qué crees que son un componente clave para el proceso de evangelización?
2. La imagen que se evoca aquí, de Emaús, es la de caminar juntos. ¿Cómo influye esto en nuestra comprensión de nuestra misión bautismal de hacer discípulos? 3. ¿De qué maneras comprendernos a nosotros mismos en el contexto de la tierra en la “Parábola del Sembrador” nos ayuda a comprender a los demás? ¿Cómo podemos “cultivar la tierra” en los corazones de quienes nos acompañan?
