THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

November 23, 2025

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Luke 23:35-43

Not long ago, I was called to a hospital to anoint a woman in her early 80s. She was dying, and visibly in pain. But what struck me most wasn't her suffering — it was the atmosphere in the room. She had eight children and 30 foster kids, and many of them were gathered around her. You'd expect sorrow, fear, maybe even despair. But the room was filled with something else entirely — a quiet strength, a kind of sweetness. It was as if she was suffering not just with them, but for them. And they, in love, were suffering for her. The pain was real. But so was the peace. I didn't want to run. I felt as if I was in a little paradise, beeping machines and all. I think of that moment when I hear today's Gospel. Jesus, hanging on the cross, doesn't look like a king. But one of the crucified, dying men beside him sees through the suffering and says, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" (Luke 23:42). That word — remember — literally means to make someone a member again. He's asking to be joined to Christ, to become part of his Body. And Jesus says, "Today you will be with me in paradise." He doesn't say, "I'll take your suffering away." He says, "You will be with me." That's the strange power of Christ the King. He doesn't rule by avoiding suffering. He reigns by entering into it, and transforming it with love. What are you suffering right now in your life? Likely you want it to stop. But if we are willing to suffer with him — paradise begins even today.

— Father John Muir

JP II INDUCTS SCHOLARS INTO THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Congratulations to the 42 newest members of the National Honor Society from John Paul II Catholic School! These outstanding students have shown what it truly means to live the four pillars of Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character—values that lie at the heart of our JP II mission. President David Lima reminded students that “intelligence alone is not enough; what truly distinguishes an NHS member are the morals and ethics that guide their choices.” Principal Heather Rembold praised the inductees for representing “the very best of JP II.” Special thanks to the 2025 NHS student-officers and Mrs. Wendy Lacombe, NHS Advisor, for organizing such a meaningful ceremony and celebration for our scholars and families. To learn more about how JP II combines academic excellence, athletic achievement, and a focus on safety to create a nurturing environment, visit the admissions section of our website at johnpaul2school.org.
