THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

February 1, 2026

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 5:1-12a

A priest I know was once falsely accused of a terrible crime. The claim was wild and easily disproved, but for a while, it didn't matter. In the atmosphere shaped by the abuse crisis of the early 2000s, the public assumption was guilty until proven innocent. His name was dragged through the mud, and his ministry placed on hold. I had the privilege – and the burden – of walking closely with him during that time. He was angry. He was confused. He felt abandoned and deeply disoriented. The last thing on his mind was the words of Jesus in today's Gospel: "Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me ... Rejoice and be glad" (Matthew 5:11-12). Rejoice? He felt anything but.

And yet... something holy slowly grew in him. Not overnight, and not without pain. But as the truth came to light and his name was cleared, I watched him become more Christlike – more patient, more compassionate, more detached from human approval.

Maybe you haven't faced something so dramatic. But where do you feel judged? Misrepresented? Overlooked? Maybe someone else got the credit or the promotion. Maybe someone you love isn't getting their due. In those moments, the Cross of Jesus is near. When we feel accused, that's when we ask him for the grace not just to endure, but somehow, mysteriously, to rejoice and be glad.

— Father John Muir

ST. BLAISE BLESSING OF THE THROAT, EXPLAINED

Perhaps it's an example of divine providence that the feast of St. Blaise falls on Feb. 3 – right in the middle of cold and flu season! This fourth-century Armenian saint was a bishop and martyr and is venerated as the patron of those who suffer from illnesses of the throat. On his feast day, Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat. This blessing is administered by a priest, deacon or a lay minister who follows the rites and prayers designated for a layperson. During the blessing, the minister takes two candles that were blessed on the feast of the Presentation and makes a cross in front of the throat, saying "Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness." A priest or deacon will then make the sign of the cross. ©LPI

The Miracle Within You

*Why do some people heal when medical science says they shouldn't?
What can extraordinary recoveries—often called medical miracles—teach us about the connection between mind, body, and spirit?*

On Tuesday, February 10th at 6:30 PM, Dr. Howard Rankin, a Psychology, Neuroscience & Cognition expert, will explore these questions through remarkable cases of healing, emerging science, and decades of clinical experience. The presentation examines the mind-body connection, the role of meaning and identity in well-being, and why spirituality remains central to health in an increasingly material and technological world.

Tuesday, February 10th | 6:30 PM

Holy Family Catholic Church, Hilton Head, SC

Admission is free. RSVP: DrHRankin@gmail.com

THE SEVEN SISTERS OF APOSTOLATE: A PRAYERFUL SUPPORT FOR PRIESTS

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a worldwide Catholic prayer initiative dedicated to supporting priests and bishops through committed intercessory prayer.

Founded in 2011 by Janette Howe in the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis, its mission is simple yet profound: to ensure that every priest has a group of seven women — “Seven Sisters”—who each offer a Holy Hour of prayer weekly for the intentions and spiritual well-being of that priest for one year. This powerful commitment forms a spiritual “holy umbrella,” surrounding the priest with grace and protection. The Seven Sisters Apostolate welcomes women of all ages who feel called to serve their priests in this special way. By joining, participants become part of an international network, supporting not just their own pastor but the entire priesthood. More sisters are needed, as well as substitutes (substitutes can be male or female).

Please contact Kathy Beno if you have any questions or to sign-up: kathybeno59@gmail.com | 330-242-4635
