THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

March 15, 2026

4th Sunday of Lent

John 9:1-41

If you are like me, it's easy to fixate on our shadows: failures, guilt, shame. Especially when we suffer, it is easy to want to blame ourselves or others. In this week's Gospel, Jesus' disciples ask about the blind man, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents?" (John 9:2) They, like us, focus on blame. But Jesus sees the entire situation differently: "Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him." He does not deny sin, but he sees deeper — through the light of mercy, not the lens of judgment. The scene hinges on Jesus' strange claim: "I am the light of the world" (John 9:5). He sees things differently than everyone. They see shadows and light. He is the light.

Thought experiment: imagine you are the sun looking at everything on the earth. What do you see? Everything. What do you not see? Shadows. Everything is illuminated. If you see it, it is illuminated. For the light, nothing is dark. Because he is the light, Jesus sees us in the glow of his redemptive love. Even our sin becomes a place where his glory can shine. The man's healing is not just about sight — it is about seeing as Christ sees. Lent is not a season of staring into darkness. It is a time to step into the light — to let Christ's gaze reframe how we see ourselves and one another.

Lenten challenge: Spend 10 quiet minutes this week asking Jesus to show you how he sees you. Not through shame or fear, but through the light of his mercy.

— Father John Muir

WHERE: HOLY FAMILY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Based upon a similar Way of the Cross devotion led by Pope Francis on Good Friday in 2020 in St. Peter's Square, each station contains a personal reflection of Christ's suffering as seen through the lens of those touched by the criminal justice system - inmates, victims, parents of victims, loved ones of prisoners, and various persons involved in prison ministry.

This unique audiovisual devotion will be presented in the church.

All are invited to join together at the Lenten Soup Supper immediately following in the Parish Hall.

LET MARY GUIDE YOU TO JESUS THIS LENT

The Power of Praying the Seven Sorrows Rosary

When united in prayer to the Blessed Mother Mary, and her son Jesus, sorrow becomes a path of deeper love and greater faith. Praying the Seven Sorrows Rosary is different in that it's a prayer for healing, a weapon against spiritual apathy and it brings you to God through the eyes of the one who lived it most, Mary. Praying the Rosary is a powerful means of intercession and renewal. If prayer feels like routine, this devotion of praying (the Seven Sorrows Rosary) has the power to awaken it. When united in prayer to the Blessed Mother Mary and her son Jesus, sorrow becomes a path of deeper love and greater faith.

Let Mother Mary lead you to Jesus through sorrow compassion and deep trust. Begin your Lenten journey praying the Seven Sorrows Rosary every Monday after morning Mass. Rosaries are available in the back of the church. Choose one to keep and pray often.

The Seven Sorrows of the Rosary booklets, with reflections by Immaculée, are available at the Religious Articles Shop. Come and unite your heart with the Blessed Mother's this Lenten season. Together let's pray this Rosary.
