THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

Reflection for August 30, 2026

Twenty Second Sunday of Ordinary Time Lectionary 124

Gospel Verse to Remember Matthew 16:23 But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God's purposes, but men's."

Why is Peter a rock of faith upon whom Jesus will build His church one week, and a stumbling block to slow the Lord down the next? The answer is in this week's Gospel. Jesus says to Peter, "You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God's purposes, but men's." Peter was thinking with his wisdom, not with God's, when he says "God forbid it, Lord! This shall never happen to You!"

Peter just couldn't imagine a God who would suffer and die for His creation. Jesus told Peter last week, "Blessed are you, Simon Barjona, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven. Note the difference between last week and this week. Last week he was confidently proclaiming the Word of God given to him by God the Father and he was a rock. This week he was relying on his own understanding, and he is a stumbling block. Let us "be transformed by the renewing of our mind," and let the Holy Spirit grant us God's Wisdom. Then we can be rocks of faith and not stumbling blocks to the Will of God.

ST. BRENDAN THE NAVIGATOR NOVENA FOR OUR PILGRIMS to Ireland

St. Brendan the Navigator was born in 484 AD in County Kerry, and is the patron saint of mariners, travelers, elderly adventurers, whales and the United States Navy. He was a monk and many believe he was the first European to reach North America, after setting out to search for the Garden of Eden.

This novena is typically prayed in May for his feast day, and prior to travelling. We invite you to join as a community in praying this 9-day novena beginning on August 31st and ending on September 8th - when our parishioners depart for Ireland.
