THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

August 9, 2026

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 14:22-33

As a young, newly ordained priest, I admired a senior priest who was gifted, beloved, and had changed countless lives. But soon I learned that he had fallen in catastrophic and destructive ways. The painful juxtaposition of good and evil was complex to process. How could someone so seemingly good also be so broken and deceptive? It forced me to confront a sobering truth: leadership in the Church is no guarantee against weakness or sin. Peter teaches that truth in this week's Gospel. When he sees Jesus walking on the sea, Peter does what leaders do. He goes first. "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." But when he sees how strong the wind is, he becomes frightened and, beginning to sink, cries out, "Lord, save me." Immediately, Jesus stretches out his hand and catches him. St. Thomas Aquinas observes that Peter overcomes the greater danger of the waves but falters before the lesser threat of the wind. This is the paradox leaders often face. It is not always the great trials that undo us, but the smaller, quieter temptations, such as subtle fears and compromises, that lead us to sink.

The good news is that Jesus does not abandon Peter. He saves him before it is too late. Our frail humanity lives within a rhythm of grace, risk, failure, and mercy. Jesus helps Peter overcome both the obvious and hidden sources of fear, and he promises to do the same for us. So, let us pray for all, especially our spiritual leaders.

— Father John Muir

CLARE AND FRANCIS

formed™
Forming Catholics for Life.

Clare and Francis

This outstanding movie is unique among films about St. Francis because of the historical accuracy of the story and its authentic spirit of joy and piety so characteristic of Francis, as well as the major role played by Clare. Both founded major religious orders, and together they inspired many to follow their radical call to live the Gospel.

To begin your online training, please visit: <https://www.holyfamilyhhi.org/safe-environment>

St. Clare was born into a noble family in Italy in 1194 but chose a life of poverty after hearing the preaching of St. Francis of Assisi. She founded the Poor Clares, and dedicated her life to prayer, simplicity and service to God.

She had a profound devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and trusted completely in God throughout her life. Her example of humility, courage and joyful faith continues to inspire Catholics around the world. Her feast day is August 11th, and she is the patron saint of television, eye diseases and embroiderers.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Thank you to our parishioners for the amazing support of our first World Youth Day fundraiser. Our snack sale was a great success and special thanks to Bocatto Barr for their support!

Please keep an eye out for more exciting fundraising events and continue to keep our young adults and youth in your prayers as they prepare for this pilgrimage.

August 15/16, 2026: 20th Sun. Ordinary Time

Prelude

"There Is a Balm in Gilead"
 African American Spiritual
 Setting by Robert Lau (b. 1943)

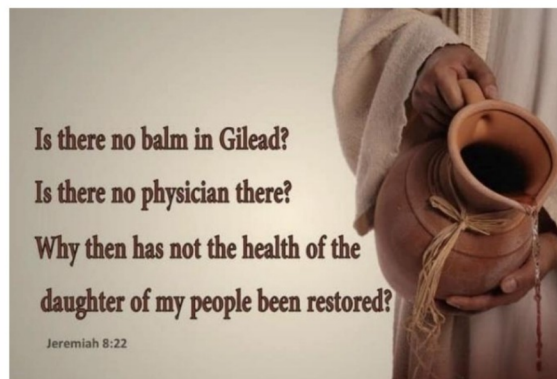

see program notes below about this piece

"Given for You"
 Richard Blake

2 settings of "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say"
KINGSFOLD: English folk tune
 Setting 1: by Albert L. Travis (b. 1940)
 Setting 2: by Dale Wood (1934-2003)

Postlude

"Marching to Zion"
 Robert Lowry (1826-1899)
 Setting by Edwin T. Childs (b. 1945)

Many have expressed confusion about the meaning of the African American Spiritual "Balm in Gilead" which we will sing on the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time. The mountainous region east of the Jordan River, known as "Gilead," was famous for producing a rare, costly, and fragrant resin or "balm" (likely harvested from Atlantic pistachio trees) which was used as an antiseptic medicine to heal physical wounds. The term appears in Jeremiah 8:20-22 where the prophet asks God if there is any medicine to save his hurting people. Jesus is called the "Balm of Gilead" as a metaphor for spiritual healing, representing His ability to cure sin, mend broken hearts, and restore the soul.
