THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

Reflection for September 13, 2026

Twenty Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Lectionary 130

In today's Gospel we are told to never stop forgiving and that forgiveness must come from the heart. What is forgiveness from the heart? In Colossians 3:13c we are told "Forgive as the Lord forgave you." Forgiveness from the heart is to forgive as the Lord forgave us. Let's meditate on our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ' passion to see how God forgave us.

In John 12:23, at the very beginning of the Passion of Our Glorious Lord He says, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified." The Son of Man makes the willful and deliberate decision to give Himself up for the forgiveness of mankind's sins. Forgiveness begins with looking at it squarely in the eye and deciding you are going to forgive with heart, soul, body and mind.

How complete was God's action in the act of forgiveness? He who was, is and always will be Life, became death. We see it in Luke 22:44, "He was in such agony and he prayed so fervently that his sweat became like drops of blood falling on the ground." It is called a Singularity in science, a complete breakdown of all physical laws producing infinite effects. He is God. Life is taking on death. Forgiveness is complete, it never looks backwards at the wrong.

Forgiveness hopes for the best for the sinner. Jesus on the Cross, with the beating, the mocking, and the gambling for His tunic, says "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." Finally we give it all up to Our God who gave us all to begin with. We love because He first loved us. "Into your hands I commend my Spirit." Let us learn to forgive as the Son of Man, the Son of God forgives. Let us learn by repeatably forgiving and learning each time we do.

St. Brendan the Navigator, pray for them!
