THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

Reflection for September 20, 2026

Twenty Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time Lectionary 133

'Are you envious because our God is generous (Matt 20:15b)? How many times have you heard the Parable of the Vineyard Workers and missed the lesson that Jesus is teaching us? Have you asked yourself why didn't the workers who were out in the field the longest get more pay? It is a reasonable question for someone who lives in this world. That is why we need to be aware of the questions we ask ourselves and how our own conditioning might be blinding us to the Word of God. Anyone who thinks that they are looking forward to the kingdom of heaven but is wondering how much more a reward they will be getting than the thief on the cross, (Luke 23:43), isn't really looking forward to the kingdom of heaven. The thief on the cross, who came to faith at the last hour, couldn't even go out into the fields to work. The fact that he is one of the first people we are assured who went to heaven is consistent with this parable. Unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven (Matt 18: 3). A child simply wants to please his parents and does not compare himself with his neighbor. A smile and a "well done," is all he will ever desire.

What pay did we sign up for when we gave our hearts to the Lord and went out into the mission fields all around us? "What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him," 1 Cor 2:9). A smile from our God will be infinitely more than we could ever imagine. He who is Love is everything we will ever want.

We must be willing to stop, think with, and be taught by our God. Seek the Lord while He may be found, call Him while He is near (Isaiah 55.6).

Music Ministry Notes

Dr. Kane is grateful to MOLLIE NICHOLS & KAREN BARTLETT for covering on 9/19 & 9/20 to enable her to head to NJ to play a benefit recital for the Diocese of Paterson seminarians in her native Morristown on Assumption's new Peragallo organ.

Many inquired about the origins of the Choral Prelude "O Love of God" which was sung by the choirs at the 9/13 Masses. The text was written by 19th c. Scottish minister/hymn writer Horatius Bonar who is perhaps best known for his text "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." "O Love of God" is reprinted here along with a link/QR code to the musical setting of the prayer composed by Dr. Kane.

"O Love of God"

*O love of God, how strong and true!
Eternal, and yet ever new
Uncomprehended and unbought
Beyond all knowledge and all thought*

*O love of God, how deep and great!
Far deeper than man's deepest hate
Self-fed, self-kindled like the light
Eternal, changeless, infinite*

*O heavenly love how precious still
In days of weariness and ill
In nights of pain and helplessness
To heal, to comfort, and to bless!*

Text: Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)

Music: PM Kane

Septiembre es el mes de la Biblia por dos acontecimientos relacionados con la Sagrada Escritura:

- 1 En este mes se cumple el aniversario de la publicación de la primera Biblia impresa (Suiza, 1549).
- 2 El día 30 celebramos a san Jerónimo, quien dedicó su vida a estudiar y traducir la Biblia al latín.

A la traducción de san Jerónimo se le conoce como "Vulgata" (de vulgata editio, "edición para el pueblo").
