ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

September 28, 2025

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time Luke 16:19-31

I am embarrassed to admit that I frequently find myself dining and socializing with people who have millions and sometimes billions of dollars. I've eaten more caviar, lobster and wagyu steak than most people on the planet. I justify it by saying it's part of my job. But I have seven pairs of nice jeans and expensive shoes.

So it is rather uncomfortable to hear Our Lord say: "My child, remember that you received what was good in your lifetime, while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented" (Luke 16:25). Fellow rich people (and if you're American, you're rich), do we not vehemently though quietly object to this parable's karma-esque reward system? Why bless the rich man just to curse him later? And curse Lazarus just to bless him later? So Americans go to hell, while Burundians and Afghans go to heaven? What is going on?

One clue is that the condemned rich man doesn't complain of injustice. Rather, he simply begs to help his brothers to repent. Of what? We don't know exactly. Perhaps another clue is that the rich man now seems more like the downtrodden Lazarus. He knows what it is to be hungry and thirsty, to be wounded in the gutter; that he deserved that, not fancy meals and clothes. Maybe the rich man finally understands how to receive true blessings, but it is too late for him. But not for me. Not for us.

— Father John Muir

"Grand Chorus in D Major"

"in the style of Handel"

Alexandre Guilmant (1837-1911)

Memorial of Thérèse de Lisieux, October 1

As a communion meditation on October 5, the choir will sing a setting of a poem written by St. Thérèse de Lisieux, the Little Flower of Jesus, called "Mon Chant Aujourd'hui" ("My Song of Today"). St. Therese's text is aptly paired in a partner song (also known as a "quodlibet") with the first verse of Kathleen Thomerson's "I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light." We praise and thank God for this remarkable saint who knew that to get to heaven: "I need not grow. On the contrary, I must remain little, I must become still less."

"Mon Chant Aujourd'hui" ("My Song of Today")

Oh! how I love Thee, Jesus! my soul aspires to Thee –
And yet for one day only my simple prayer I pray!
Come reign within my heart, smile tenderly on me,
Today, dear Lord, today.

But if I dare take thought of what the morrow brings –
That fills my fickle heart with dreary, dull dismay;
I crave, indeed, my God, trials and sufferings,
But only for today!

O sweetest Star of heaven! O Virgin, spotless, blest, Shining with Jesus' light, guiding to Him my way!
O Mother! 'neath thy veil let my tired spirit rest,
For this brief passing day!

Soon shall I fly afar among the holy choirs,
Then shall be mine the joy that never knows decay;
And then my lips shall sing, to heaven's angelic lyres,
The eternal, glad today!

"Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice,
here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word;
always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love."

— St. Therese of Lisieux

AROUND OUR COMMUNITY

JPII SENIOR NAMED NATIONAL MERIT SEMIFINALIST

John Paul II Catholic School proudly congratulates senior Matthew Yanachik for being named a National Merit Semifinalist, one of the most prestigious academic distinctions awarded to high school students across the country. Matthew earned this honor by achieving exceptional scores on the Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT). Out of approximately 1.3 million juniors nationwide who entered the 2025 National Merit Scholarship Program, only about 16,000 students—less than 1% of U.S. high school seniors—advanced to the semifinalist stage. As a semifinalist, Matthew will now have the opportunity to continue in the competition for some 7,500 National Merit Scholarships worth nearly $30 million, which will be offered in the spring of 2026. "We are tremendously proud of Matthew and this incredible accomplishment," said JPII Principal Heather Rembold praising Matthew's achievement. "His dedication, intellectual curiosity, and perseverance are an inspiration to his peers and a testament to the academic excellence we strive for at John Paul II Catholic School. We congratulate him and look forward to seeing all the great things he will continue to achieve." The National Merit Scholarship Program was established in 1955 to recognize and honor the academically talented students of the United States. Being named a semifinalist is a remarkable achievement that reflects years of commitment to learning and
