THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

Matthew 18:19-20

"Again, truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything they ask for, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. 20 For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them."

Do we consider who it is who said, "there am I with them," in today's Gospel? In the first chapter of John, we learn that The Word of God, through whom everything came to be, "became flesh and dwelt among us." John 1:14. In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us, "For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them." The Word of God is with us if we gather in His Name.

Jesus promises, "truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything they ask for, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven." Read Acts 4 to understand this promise. The apostles, Peter and John, with some companions, after being arrested and released by the Temple Guard, pray "in one voice" to "speak with great boldness" and "heal and perform wonders through the Name of Jesus." The result is that "with great power they testified of Jesus Christ," and there "were no needy among them."

The great promise and awesome privilege fulfilled in Peter, John and a few others getting together and praying in one voice, highlights Jesus' promise to us today. The concept of two or three gathering to establish truth in Jewish law goes back to the book of Deuteronomy. Jesus tells us that this is infinitely more than a manmade legal construct, it is Divine Wisdom. When two or three gather and pray in the name of Jesus, the one through whom all things were made, He will be present with the infinite Wisdom, Love, and Power of the Father. Get together often, in one voice, in the Name of Jesus. It will mean infinitely more than just a morning meeting.

GOSPEL EXAMINATION

Reflect on Ezekiel's role. A true watchman warns out of love to save a life, not to condemn.

The Action: Spend 10 minutes in silent prayer before the Blessed Sacrament or a crucifix, asking the Lord for the courage to speak the truth gently, and the grace to listen if the other person has a grievance against you, too.
