IN THE DIOCESE OF CHARLESTON,
THE FEAST OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD IS TRANSFERRED TO SUNDAY, MAY 17TH

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

May 10, 2026

6th Sunday of Easter John 14:15-21

In my family, we can hardly speak about orphans without tears. My father was adopted as a baby. He frequently told us stories of how his parents welcomed him not just into their home but into their hearts. It was never merely a relocation or a legal transaction. It was the joy of being chosen, of receiving a family, a name, and a place where he belonged forever. Even in his later years, recalling that gift still moves him to tears of tender gratitude.

That is the kind of tenderness behind Jesus' words in today's Gospel: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." (John 14:18) He is going away, but not abandoning us. Instead, he sends us the Advocate, the Holy Spirit — his own Spirit, shared with the Father — who dwells in us. Through the Spirit, Christ is present in us, and we are present in him. His Spirit gives us a home and a family.

We deepen this knowledge in the sacraments, in prayer, and in the daily life of the Church. The Spirit is the bond of belonging, the power that makes us God's sons and daughters, not spiritual orphans. And this is not a one-time event. There is always a deeper outpouring of the Spirit available to us, a fresh appropriation of the promise that we are never abandoned.

If only we could be as grateful as my dad is for his adoption, realizing that we have been adopted by God Himself. In Christ, we are never left as orphans.

— Father John Muir

THIS MONTH'S VIA FIDELIS ACTIVITY:
LEARN ABOUT A PARTICULAR MARIAN APPARITION

It is important for us to always strive to better understand how Mary's intercession and the messaging of her apparitions help us to clearly see God's will for us and for the Church.

Each Sunday in May, the bulletin will feature a different Marian apparition.

The Feast of Our Lady of Fatima on May 13th commemorates the first apparition of the Virgin Mary to the three shepherd children - Lucia dos Santos and her cousins Francisco and Jacinta Marto—in Fatima, Portugal, in 1917. According to their accounts, the Virgin Mary appeared to them six times between May and October, delivering messages of prayer, repentance, and devotion to God. She emphasized the importance of praying the Rosary daily, especially for peace in the world during a time marked by World War I.

The children described Mary as a figure of radiant light, speaking gently yet urgently about humanity's need for spiritual renewal. One of the most famous elements of Fatima is the "Miracle of the Sun," witnessed by tens of thousands of people on October 13, 1917, who reported seeing the sun dance or change colors in the sky. The apparitions also included what became known as the Three Secrets of Fatima, which addressed visions of hell, predictions of global conflict, and spiritual challenges facing the Church. Over time, the Catholic Church investigated the events and declared them worthy of belief in 1930.

Fatima has since become one of the most significant pilgrimage sites in the world, drawing millions each year. The story continues to inspire devotion, reflection, and a sense of hope for peace. Many people see the message of Fatima as a timeless call to faith, compassion, and personal transformation.

The home of Jacinta and Francisco still stands today in Fatima.
