THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

June 28, 2026

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 10:37-42

I still remember the first homily I ever preached as a new deacon. It was at the seminary, and the Gospel was this one: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me." (Matthew 10:37-38) Standing before more than 200 classmates and professors, I stumbled awkwardly through my words and realized how strange — almost insane — this teaching sounded. If anyone else said it, we would call it narcissistic or cultish.

And that is the point. I felt the weight of those words in my own heart then, as I still do today. Am I willing to live as though Christ's claim on my love is absolute? Are you?

Over the years, I've learned that the more I do, the more everything else makes sense. Family, friendships, vocation, even my very self: all of it falls into place when my love for Jesus comes first.

That is why he dares to speak this way. Our Lord is not a cult leader hungry for control. He is the Son of God, the source of life and love itself. To put him before everything else is not to lose, but to find...everything, and everyone, in him. This week, name one thing or one person you are tempted to place before the Lord. Then consciously offer it back to him in prayer.

— Father John Muir

FUN FACTS about today's offerings:

*Born in Little Rock, Arkansas in 1887,

Florence Price, won first prize in the Wanamaker Competition with her Symphony in E minor & as a result, became the first female composer of African descent to have a symphonic work performed by a major national symphony orchestra.

Sir George Thalben-Ball's best known organ work, "Elegy" (which you will hear today), was played at the funeral of Diana, Princess of Wales. This piece originated as an improvisation which Thalben-Ball played at the end of a live BBC daily religious service during World War II to round-out what was to have been a one-hour program that finished earlier than expected.

Malcolm Archer is an English composer, conductor and organist. He combines this work with a recital career. Archer was formerly Organist and Director of Music at Bristol Cathedral, Wells Cathedral and at St Paul's Cathedral and Director of Chapel Music at Winchester College.
