THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL FOCUS

August 3, 2025

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12:13-21

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, "Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions" (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less? In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too.

— Father John Muir

ST. JOHN VIANNEY

“THE PRIESTHOOD IS THE
LOVE OF THE HEART OF
JESUS. WHEN YOU SEE A PRIEST, THINK OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST.”

August 4th

August 4th is the feast day of St. John Vianney who was a French priest and is the patron saint of parish priests. Vianney struggled throughout his time at the seminary but persevered to achieve his goal of becoming a priest. He was ordained in 1815 and was assigned to a small, rural parish of Ars, where he became known as the Cure of Ars.

St. John Vianney was known for his deep holiness and prayer life, extraordinary dedication to the confessional and his powerful preaching. Pilgrims travelled from all over France to hear him preach. He became a model of priestly virtues, especially humility and pastoral care.

Following the teachings of St. John Vianney, it is important for all of us to understand the importance of parish priests. They serve as spiritual fathers, shepherds and mediators of God's grace through the administration of the sacraments.

Pray for Our Priests

Holy Family is happy to share a new quarterly priest prayer calendar for those priests who are assigned to the Diocese of Charleston, both active and retired. Please visit www.holyfamilyhhi.org to download the calendar, to offer your daily prayers to our priests.

ENFOQUE DEL EVANGELIO DE ESTA SEMANA

3 de agosto de 2025

XVIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

A todos nos gusta hacer planes, tener metas y llegar a ellas. Eso nos pone contentos porque nos va bien en la vida y pensamos: "Qué bien, he luchado tanto que ya puedo disfrutar de lo que tengo". Pero nos olvidamos de lo más importante: en las metas nunca contamos contigo. Nos olvidamos de que sólo Tú, Señor, nos darás la auténtica libertad y felicidad. No está la vida en poseer bienes.

"Eviten con gran cuidado toda clase de codicia, porque, aunque uno tenga todo, no son sus posesiones las que le dan vida" (Lucas 12:15).

Vale preguntarnos: ¿Cuál es el centro de tu vida? ¿Cuál es la meta en tu vida? ¿Está tu felicidad en lo que posees, en tu estatus social, en lo que dirá la gente de ti? Cuidado, nos advierte Jesús:

"Esta misma noche vas a morir. ¿Quién se quedará con lo que has preparado?" (Lucas 12:20).

"Jesús percibe nuestros problemas, nuestras debilidades, nuestras necesidades; invita a convertirnos a la fe en la Providencia, saber compartir lo poco que somos y tenemos, y no cerrarnos nunca en nosotros mismos"

(Papa Francisco).

El tener muchos bienes y prestigio no es malo, lo que Dios desea es que aprendamos a ser desprendidos, es decir, generosos. No equivoquemos el proyecto de nuestra vida; la abundancia es pasajera, todo se queda al morir.

Solo las riquezas espirituales serán eternas.

"Esto vale para toda persona que amontona para sí misma en vez de acumular para Dios"

(Lucas 12:21)
