Orange Grove Center Invites Community to Participate in November Recycling Days:

November 14 and November 19 Dedicated Days for Recycling

Chattanooga, TN- - Orange Grove Center is asking area businesses and individuals to participate in two recycling days this November. A partnership between Orange Grove and Unum will take place on Friday, November 14 in celebration of America Recycles Day, and on Wednesday, November 19 Orange Grove will host a “Free Shred and Free Electronic Recycling Day”.

America Recycles Day, a program of Keep America Beautiful, is a nationally recognized day dedicated to promoting and celebrating recycling in the United States. Orange Grove is partnering with Unum again this year to celebrate the community-wide initiative.

Everyone is invited to drop of unwanted, recyclable items to be collected by volunteers with Unum’s Green Team, organizers of the event, and Association of Records Managers and Administrators. The following items will be accepted: confidential documents to shred, books to recycle, clothing, shoes and purses. Goodwill Industries will also be present to collect computers and computer components such as printer and scanners. Items will be accepted from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on November 14 in the Republic Parking lot at the corner of 4th and Walnut Street.

On Wednesday, November 19 Orange Grove Center will host a “Free Shred and Free Electronic Recycling Day” for all residents, local businesses and anyone wishing to securely destroy and recycle their unwanted paper materials and computers. Items will be accepted from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the John. F. Germ Center at Orange Grove on Dodson Avenue. In addition to paper and computers, clothing, linen and books will be accepted.

For more information on America Recycles Day with Orange Grove and Unum, please contact Tera Roberts at troberts@orangegrove.org or call 423-308-1170.

For more information on Orange Grove’s “Free Shred and Free Electronic Recycling Day” please contact Misti Gipson at 423-493.2949.
