

Angelus

The Angelus is a brief devotion in honor of the Incarnation that consists of short verses drawn from the Bible and a triple repetition of the Hail Mary. The devotion derives its name from the opening phrase in Latin: Angelus Domini nuntiavit Mariae (the Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary).

The Angelus is a way for lay people to sanctify the hours of the day that echoes the monastic praying of the Liturgy of the Hours. The practice seems to have always been associated with the ringing of a bell at 6:00 a.m., noon, and 6:00 p.m. Whole villages and towns would literally come to halt when the Angelus bell rang. Laborers in the fields, workers in shops, and families at home set aside what they were doing and prayed the Angelus together.

Today many churches and monasteries—as well as a number of radio and television stations—ring the Angelus bell at six o'clock in the morning, at noon, and at six in the evening, inviting the faithful to pause at what they are doing and pray.

Praying the Angelus sanctifies the hours of the day. God is our all in all, our very beginning and the end toward which we strive. By intentionally setting aside time for prayer throughout the day, every day, we turn our whole lives over to God, who becomes the motivation of all we do and all we are. Perhaps no devotion is better suited to this end than one centered on the Incarnation.

The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary full of Grace, the Lord is with thee.

Blessed are thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus.

Holy Mary Mother of God,

pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

Be it done unto me according to Thy word.

Hail Mary ...

And the Word was made flesh.

And dwelt amongst us.

Hail Mary ...

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Pour fourth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts,

That we to whom the Incarnation of Christ, Thy Son,

was made known by the message of an Angel,

may, by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of the Resurrection, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
