The readings for the last few Sundays have been about the Resurrection, but today's Gospel takes us back in time to an event in Jesus' life before his Passion. Jesus tells his disciples that he is going to prepare a place for them in his Father's house. He promises that where he is going, his disciples will be able to follow. Thomas, who will later doubt the disciples' reports that they have seen the Risen Lord, contradicts Jesus by saying that the disciples do not know where Jesus is going or how to get there. Jesus explains that he himself is the way, the truth, and the life. In knowing and loving Jesus, the disciples now love God the Father. Philip then makes a request that challenges Jesus' words. Philip wants Jesus to show the Father to the disciples. Recall that Jesus has just told his disciples, "If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." As a good teacher, Jesus responds to Philip by repeating and elaborating on what he has just told the disciples: they have seen and known Jesus, so they have seen and known the Father. Then Jesus offers another reassurance about his departure: because of faith in God and in Jesus, the disciples will do the work that Jesus has done and more.

QUINTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Las lecturas de los últimos domingos han tratado sobre la Resurrección; sin embargo, el Evangelio de hoy nos transporta en el tiempo a un acontecimiento de la vida de Jesús anterior a su Pasión. Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que va a prepararles un lugar en la casa de su Padre. Les promete que, adonde él va, sus discípulos podrán seguirlo. Tomás —quien más tarde dudaría de los testimonios de los discípulos acerca de haber visto al Señor Resucitado— contradice a Jesús al afirmar que los discípulos no saben adónde va Jesús ni cómo llegar hasta allí. Jesús explica que él mismo es el camino, la verdad y la vida. Al conocer y amar a Jesús, los discípulos aman ahora también a Dios Padre. Entonces, Felipe formula una petición que pone a prueba las palabras de Jesús: desea que Jesús les muestre el Padre a los discípulos. Recordemos que Jesús acaba de decirles a sus discípulos: «Si me conocen a mí, conocerán también a mi Padre. Desde ahora ya lo conocen y lo han visto». Como buen maestro, Jesús responde a Felipe reiterando y profundizando en lo que acaba de decirles a los discípulos: puesto que han visto y conocido a Jesús, han visto y conocido también al Padre. A continuación, Jesús les ofrece otra palabra de consuelo respecto a su partida: gracias a su fe en Dios y en Jesús, los discípulos realizarán las mismas obras que Jesús ha realizado, e incluso mayores. -LOYOLA PRESS
