The image is a high-quality architectural rendering of a modern shopping center. The main building features a large, dark, textured facade with a prominent white eagle sculpture in flight. Below the eagle, the words "AMERICAN EAGLE" and "OUTLET" are visible. The building has large glass windows and a corner with a rusted metal texture. In the foreground, there is a paved plaza with a rectangular water feature and a planter bed with gravel and a small tree. Several people in traditional Middle Eastern attire are walking around. A semi-transparent white box with text is overlaid on the left side of the image.
