

WHAT THE WORLD NEEDS NOW

February Sermon Series

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1

WEEK 1 | John 13:34-35 | Love that Shows

In a world that often feels competitive, hectic, and disconnected, the answer isn't louder voices or more performance. It's something timeless, personal, and deep: genuine love. This isn't just about romantic love but also the kind that strengthens families, bridges gaps, and endures through hardships. What the world needs now is the kind of love Jesus showed and continues to demonstrate today.

BIG IDEA

What the world needs now is not perfect people but love that shows the way Jesus did.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?
2. Jesus washed the feet of people He knew would fail Him and even betray Him. Think about a time when you showed kindness or care to someone who later disappointed you. How did that experience shape the way you protect yourself or hold back today?
3. Jesus served without any guarantee that His love would be returned. In your own life, where do you hesitate to love because you are afraid it will not be noticed, appreciated, or reciprocated?
4. Considering the abundant life Jesus promises, what's one small step you can take today to trust Him more with your next decision and follow Him more closely, even if you don't have all the answers?

YOUR NEXT STEP

This week, identify one person you've been waiting on or an apology, an effort, a step forward, or a change. Make a conscious choice to lead with love by approaching them with patience and kindness the next time you meet.
