

Travel Light

WHEN LIFE SHIFTS, GOD STILL LEADS

SUNDAY, JUNE 28

WEEK 4 | Matthew 6:25-34 | Tomorrow Is Too Heavy

Have you ever tried to travel with too much? Too many bags, too much weight, trying to keep up with everything at once. At some point, you realize you're carrying more than you need, and it's slowing you down. Life can feel the same way. What once felt normal can start to feel uncertain; the noise gets louder, and before you know it, you're carrying more than you were meant to carry. It becomes harder to see clearly and easier to miss what really matters. But God is not distant in moments like this. He is present, steady, and already at work, even when life feels unfamiliar or unsettled. This summer, we'll learn to slow down, travel light, and trust God with what we've been carrying. You don't have to carry it all alone.

BIG IDEA

Travel Light means seeking God's kingdom today and trusting God with tomorrow.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?
2. What have you been worried about lately?
3. What would trusting God with that look like this week?
4. What do you need to give to God, and what do you need to do this week?
5. How can we pray for you?

YOUR NEXT STEP

When you start to worry this week, ask yourself: "Is this mine to carry today?"
