MOVE TOGETHER TOWARD THE GOAL

“The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each member is the team.” ~ Phil Jackson

It has taken a lifetime to try to unlearn some of the things that I was taught as a child. My parents were two of the millions who lived during the Great Depression. Because of that, they developed a certain standard about living. My father, especially, taught his sons that we had to rely solely on ourselves. We had to do everything necessary by ourselves. It was a weakness to ask anyone else for help.

That's not the truth, however. Yes, there are things that we need to accomplish. There are things for which we are responsible. However, we do not need to exclude others from our lives. We can certainly ask others for help. As much as we might value individual strength, we also need to value a collective strength.

We are not alone. If we attempt to live alone, we will soon find out just how dependent we are upon others. Even the great saints who desired to be alone found that it wasn't possible. There were some who went into the desert and made hermitages for themselves solely for the purpose of removing themselves from society.

However, their very holiness soon attracted the attention of others and, before they knew it, they had followers. Their intention of being alone was soon replaced with being the center of a community. Their holiness was a bedrock for the communities formed around them. The collective benefited from them and they found themselves benefiting from the community in which they lived.

Today, Super Bowl Sunday, is a reminder of the strength of individuals as well as the need for community. Any player, in and of himself, cannot win a game. It takes the unity of many to make that happen. It is only in teamwork — each contributing the best of himself — that a win is possible.

The same holds for our own lives. We might be incredibly holy. We might be incredibly talented. We might be incredibly insightful. Those are all well and good. However, God did not bless us with those attributes and graces so that we could go it on our own. God blessed us so that we might rally the team of Christians among whom we live and move together toward the goal: eternal life in His Kingdom.

FAITH ACTION: In all humility, identify your many gifts and then ask God to give you the grace to use them for the benefit of those around you.

F.n. Mike

PLEASE REMEMBER THEM

Please pray for the priests and deacons who have served the Diocese of Gary so faithfully and whose anniversaries of death are this week:

- February 8: Msgr. Frederick J. Westendorf (1963)
Rev. Robert E. Emmons (1965)
February 10: Rev. Edward Kennedy (2007)
February 11: Rev. Louis M. Letko (1981)

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

(As the assignment process has started, it's time to turn our thoughts to how priests are moved from parish to parish. Here's a popular joke that makes the rounds of the internet.)

THE CHAIN LETTER PERFECT PASTOR

The perfect pastor does indeed exist — you've never met them, but you know they are out there. This is a sure-fire way of guaranteeing that you will be served by the perfect pastor, should you have enough faith to do what is necessary. First, just in case you have never dreamed of the perfect pastor, he/she must be defined:

....The perfect pastor preaches exactly 10 minutes. The perfect pastor condemns sin roundly, but never hurts anyone's feelings.

....The perfect pastor works from 8 a.m. until midnight, and is also the church janitor.

....The perfect pastor makes $100 a week, wears stylish clothes, drives a new car that reflects well on your church, buys ten excellent books each week, and donates $80 a week to the parish.

....The perfect pastor is 29 years old and has 40 years' worth of experience.

....The perfect pastor has a burning desire to work with teenagers, and he/she spends most of his/her time with the senior citizens.

....The perfect pastor smiles all the time with a straight face because he/she has a sense of humor that keeps him/her seriously dedicated to the parish.

....The perfect pastor makes 15 home visits a day and is always in the office to be handy when needed.

....The perfect pastor always has time for parish council and all of its committees. He/she never misses the meeting of any parish organization, and is always busy evangelizing the unchurched.

....The perfect pastor is broken enough to understand all people, but perfect in mental, emotional and physical health.

....The Perfect Pastor is always in the next parish over where your friend attends church.

If your pastor does not measure up, simply send this notice to six other parishes that are tired of their pastor too. Then bundle up your pastor and send him/her to the parish at the top of your list. If everyone cooperates, in one week you will receive 1,643 pastors from which to choose. One of them should be perfect.

Have faith in this letter — it works. But beware! One parish broke the chain and got its old pastor back in less than three months.

Gospel Reflection Matthew 5:13-16

I recently learned why zebras have stripes. Scientists used to think it was for camouflage, but new research suggests something more interesting: the stripes help zebras blend in with one another. When a predator looks at a herd, the overlapping stripes make it hard to single out one animal. But if a researcher spray-paints a dot on just one zebra, predators lock on it and eventually attack. The lesson? In the wild, blending in is protection. Standing out can be dangerous.

Human beings are not so different. Most of us would rather blend in than stand out, especially when it comes to our faith. We know that giving bold witness to Jesus — through our words, values, or public choices — can make us targets for criticism, isolation, or judgment. That's why Jesus' words in today's Gospel are so challenging: "You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden" (Matthew 5:14).

A city on a hill draws attention. It also draws fire. But that's part of the cost of discipleship. Jesus doesn't call us to be tribal or boastful. He calls us to stand in the open with humble confidence, so that people might see our good deeds and glorify our Father in heaven. Today, let's ask for the courage not just to believe in Christ, but to be seen believing in him.

Stewardship REFLECTION

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven."
MATTHEW 5:16

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people, and it is contagious! Good works encourages more good works. Generosity is a by-product of a grateful lifestyle. The more we recognize God's gifts, the more we want to share them. Good stewards recognize that God is working through them, and they don't put themselves above the people they have been called to help.

So THAT'S the Point of Lent!

Daniel Maul, Director of Discipleship

When I was a Norbertine, as a novice, every day, we'd go to a small chapel, for twenty minutes of "silent contemplation." The novice master never explained why we were doing it or even what we were to do, other than be silent. I was twenty-three years old and had to look up what the word contemplation even meant. For two months, I had no idea what I was supposed to be getting out of it. I just sat there. Some days, I would mindfully pray to God; other days, I wouldn't think of anything at all; and, sometimes, I'd even fall asleep. I'd just "rest in the Lord" (Psalm 37:7). It wasn't until a few months of this routine that I realized what it was all about. It hit me, when my uncle came to visit and told me that I had never before seemed to him so "centered and at peace." And, you know, I was. I knew instantly that it was because of the contemplation. Unbeknownst to me, God had been working on me, and He was able to, only because I was giving Him the regular, structured time to do so. He had been giving me peace and putting my body in touch with my soul, while I just sat there, for Him.

When we intentionally give God our time, without distraction, He works on us, drawing us to conversion, peace, and holiness.

Lent can be a bit like this. We do it. We do it for a specific amount of time (40 days, which, biblically, signifies that a historical and sacred event lasted EXACTLY how long God wanted it to, however long that might have been). We do it regularly (annually). But, we don't always know why we do it or what we're supposed to get out of it.

For one, Lent is not a diet program. It's not about, for example, giving up chocolate (though sacrificing something that we enjoy is good, so long as we know why we're doing it and what we're supposed to get out of it: e.g., to suffer with Christ; for solidarity with those who hurt; to practice self-denial and self-control, so as to become holier; to become more spiritually reliant upon God, not the things of this world, when we suffer and don't get what we want). It also doesn't require a 'dry-January' type of mindset, seeking to detox and get healthy. Lent is not about physical health, though it's always good to be healthy.

Lent is a time for spiritual growth, a time for us to embrace God's beautiful invitation to grow deeper in our relationship with Him.

During this Lent, let's not miss the point. Let's make it a time in which we intentionally say, "Here I am, Lord." "Do with me what you wish." "I just want to be closer to you."

Every day of Lent, let's give God some of our time and attention, in ways that we don't normally do so, and, then, reap the spiritual benefits that are meant to be the results of Lent.

St. Thomas More School

Catholic Schools Week 2026

Catholic School Week is celebrated in over 8,800 Catholic schools nationwide in observance of the many attributes of a Catholic education. At St. Thomas More School, we raise the bar on educational expectations, incorporate our faith throughout each school day, provide a kind & loving educational environment and foster an atmosphere of giving, service and leadership.

Each year, St. Thomas More School recognizes a member of our alumni base who has lived a life inspired by their Catholic faith, who has supported our school and parish and continues to embody strong moral character and the value of service to others.

Ken Keilman, Sr.

Distinguished Graduate of the Year — STMS Class of 1966

We are proud to announce Ken Keilman, a long time St. Thomas More parishioner and community servant, as our 2026 Distinguished Graduate of the Year.

Reflecting on his early life as a student at St. Thomas More School, Ken continues to value the instruction and examples of his dedicated STMS teachers, remembering to this day the many life lessons the Sisters instilled upon him as a young boy. He has carried with him the importance of continuing to serve God and others with kindness and care.

Ken has taken all those lessons to heart. A long time employee of the Town of Munster and a 47-year veteran of the Munster Fire Department, Ken has indeed led a life of service to those in our community.

Throughout his adult life, Ken has also served in many other capacities, volunteering at St. Thomas More School while his children attended, coaching basketball, Little League & Babe Ruth baseball. He has also served as a volunteer Boy Scout leader and Explorers leader and mentor.

Along with his wife, Cindy, Ken is the proud parent of four St. Thomas More School alumni (Larry, Kelly, Mary and Ken, Jr.) and grandpa to a current STMS student, adorable Nadia. It is clear that the values and benefits of Ken's Catholic education is still as important to him today as they were as a young man, as he now watches a third generation of Keilmans attend St. Thomas More School.

Thank you, Ken, for all you do to live in faith and help those around you to do the same.
