Mission Statement:

The Roman Catholic Saint Thomas More Parish Family welcomes and invites every person to join us on our journey in faith and celebration. With the grace and guidance of the Holy Spirit, and through Sacred Scripture and Tradition, we proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all, especially in loving service to those in need.

As part of the Universal Church, we affirm the dignity of every person. All this we do to give glory and honor to God.

THE BOOK OF YOUR LIFE

"And your very flesh shall be a great poem." ~ Walt Whitman

I have heard it said, many times throughout my life, that we might be the only "book" that another person reads in his or her life. They will look at us, they will examine us, they will listen to us and parse our words. They will learn from us and be led, for good or ill, by our example.

That, in and of itself, should make us stop and reflect upon just what kind of life we are living.

How do we feel, knowing that we are setting the example that someone else might follow? Do we accept that incredible responsibility or are we frightened because we know that we miss the mark when it comes to living a good, holy life?

The responsibilities of every Christian are many. We are to do all that we can to become more holy day by day. That means that we should have a solid and continuous prayer life. It also means that we should worship with the faith community and perform the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. To become more holy, we sacrifice of ourselves for the sake and benefit of others. Putting others before ourselves is an act of humility and reverence.

There are too many people in this world who put their own wants first. Because of this, they never seem to be willing to help others in need. That is a real shame. They deprive themselves of the joy of helping others and, instead, draw more deeply into themselves. These are the people who, if they are ever in need, do not even know how to ask for help since they never truly associated with others. Even if they did ask for help, they may find no one willing to come to their aid since they never helped others.

Learning to help begins at a very early age. We need to teach our children the value and joy of helping others. When they see that we are willing to reach out to others and that we derive joy and fulfillment from doing so, they will be more inclined to mimic our actions and learn for themselves that helping others can be a joyful and holy experience.

There are people in the world who will watch us before ever approaching us. They will watch us to see if our deeds match our words. If we say that we are believers, we should be living the life of a believer. Doing so, we will set a shining example for others to follow.

It might seem kind of frightening to think that we might be the only book that another reads in his or her life. Yes, it might be frightening; but, it is a reality. Allow God to author the best book possible in you.

FAITH ACTION: Ask God to give you the grace to be a true witness of Jesus' love.

In. Mike

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

More beginning of the school year humor

- Billy came home from his first day of school, and his mother asked, "What did you learn today?" "Not enough," Billy replied. "They said I have to go back tomorrow."
- Why was school easier for cave people? There was no history to study.
- A man dug a tunnel out of prison and came up in a local preschool playground. "I'm free! I'm free!" he yelled. "Big deal," said a little boy. "I'm 4."
- What animal doesn't deserve straight A's in school? Why, a cheetah, of course.
- A student was caught passing notes in class but didn't get in trouble. Why? It was music class.

Gospel Meditation

Luke 12:49-53

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, "You shouldn't be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don't. If I stop pushing you, it means I don't think you have any more potential." He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week. "Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?" he asks, "No, tell you, but rather division" (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That's why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents' wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth on fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let's thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

Stewardship REFLECTION

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division." LUKE 12:51

Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don't want to cause any turmoil. However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them. Form your conscience; take a stance for life, marriage, and religious liberty.
