Explore Ontario's majestic north and witness the rugged Canadian Shield, awash in vibrant autumn colours. Breathe in Tobermory's cooling bay breezes as you admire the turquoise waters of this quaint harbour town. Cross Devil's Gap aboard the Chi-Cheemaun ferry to Manitoulin Island, the largest freshwater island in the world!

Once in Sault Ste Marie, there are two options. With one, it's "All aboard the Agawa Canyon Train!" Enjoy the passing landscapes and explore the canyon during a lunch break before you begin the return trip, snaking back through ravines and crossing gorges on trestle bridges. With stunning scenery and a relaxing train excursion, this is a quintessential Canadian experience. Alternatively, take a guided Lake Superior Coastal drive. View the distinct landscapes that inspired The Group of Seven artists over a hundred years ago, visit the Voyageur's Lodge and Lake Superior Provincial Park, and enjoy one of the most scenic drives in Ontario.

Why This Tour is Great

Get Close to Nature

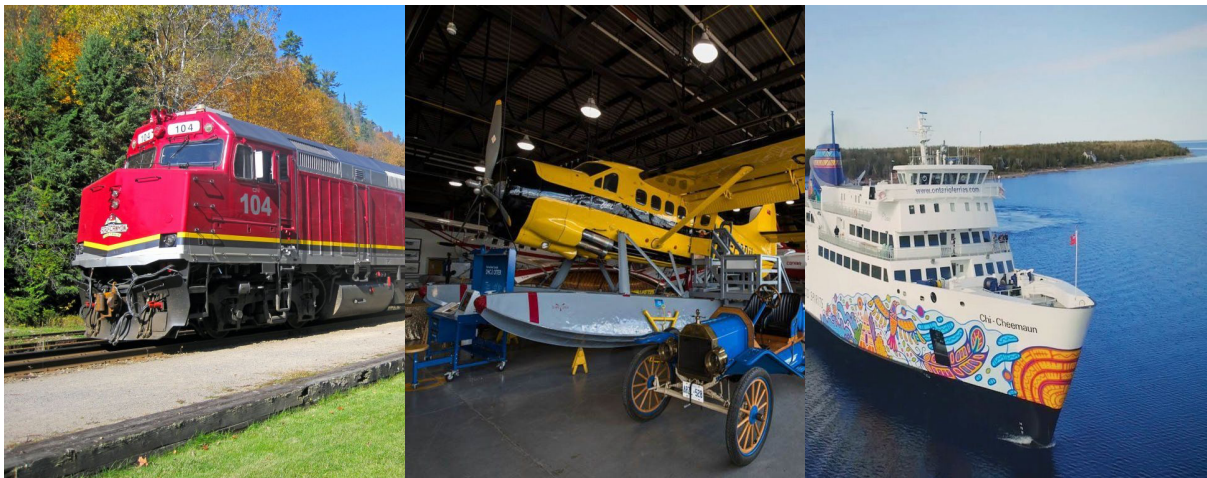

The different modes of transportation offered on this tour allow you to see the beautiful features of Ontario. See Canada’s rugged landscape ablaze with vibrant autumn colours. Marvel at the crystal-clear waters and the geological wonders carved by glaciers and prehistoric waterfalls.

Agawa Canyon Wilderness Park

Accessible only by rail, this untouched land is a wonder to behold. Enjoy a picnic by the river, where antique railroad equipment is displayed. Walk amongst the floral and fauna and climb the lookout tower for a panoramic view of the canyon. Or follow the River Trail to Black Beaver and Bridal Veil Falls, where you might catch a glimpse of playful river otters or beavers.

Options!

Bring your friends and enjoy the fall colours together, even if one person would prefer not to take the train ride. On that day, in the comfort of the coach, enjoy one of the most scenic drives in Ontario!

Meals: B, L, D

Day 3: Agawa Canyon Train OR Guided Lake Superior Scenic Drive

Option 1: The Train! Enjoy an early breakfast at your hotel before boarding the train. Travel to the Agawa Canyon, with the vibrant autumn colours out in full display. You will have an hour and a half to stroll the canyon base and enjoy your boxed lunch while taking in the breathtaking vista and landscapes.

Option 2: The Guided Scenic Drive! Enjoy breakfast at your hotel before boarding the coach along with your local guide. Stop at the Voyageur's Lodge and meet a Voyageur. Hear his stories of travelling and living on these Lake Superior shores, and enjoy the lodge's famous fritters! In Lake Superior Provincial Park, learn about the "Power of Lake Superior" and the park's cultural history. Enjoy the stunning scenery with insights from the local guide and see some of the specific spots that inspired the Group of Seven.

Following both options, return to your hotel for a free evening to explore and soak up sweeping views of St. Mary's River.

Meals: B, L

Day 4: Travel Home

Our journey home goes through Sudbury, where you'll enjoy a farewell lunch with your fellow travellers. Then sit back and enjoy the autumn leaves go by as you travel home.

Meals: B, L

Did you know?

The landscapes painted by The Group of Seven, are an important part of the heritage of Canada, and it may enrich the experiences on this trip to be re-acquainted with their story and their work. The Agawa Canyon Train and the Scenic Coastal Drive include sites that inspired these artists. When the train stops in the Agawa Canyon Park, be sure to walk towards Bridal Veil Falls where you'll see specific landscapes that inspired some of the sketches by Lawren Harris and J.E.H. MacDonald. With the Scenic Drive option, when in Lake Superior Provincial Park, be sure to walk down to the beach.

Guest Feedback

Mother Nature provided the highlights for the drive.
- L. Wiles

The Canadian Bushplane Museum was very interesting and the dinner excellent.
- L. Lawrence

Enjoyed it all - very relaxing, stress-free, and of course the Agawa Train. Great tour, overall!
