Calgary is Canada's best, in a Stetson. It's a can-do city overloaded with generosity, dern-good cookin', and that out-west cowboy vibe. Calgary ticks off every checkbox on a traveller's list, including playing host to Canada's biggest party, the Calgary Stampede. Staying in downtown Calgary, you are within walking distance of the Stampede excitement!

Ready to roam? Head out to Alberta's Badlands, where 8,000 hectares of fossil-rich terrain hide prehistoric secrets. Then set your sights on Lake Louise, that postcard-perfect gem with its turquoise waters, dramatic glacier backdrop, and towering peaks. Then, soar above it all on the Sulphur Mountain Gondola, float peacefully down the Bow River, and spend time in Banff, where alpine charm meets Rocky Mountain majesty.

It's a whirlwind of cowboy culture, natural beauty, and unforgettable moments. So pull on your boots, soak in the scent of sizzling Alberta BBQ, and give us your best "Yeehaw, honey!" You're in for six spectacular days, crowned by the legendary Calgary Stampede, with premium seats that put you close enough to feel the dust kick up from the arena floor.

It's a breathtaking reminder of nature's grandeur, where you'll feel wonderfully small beneath the vast expanse of the Rocky Mountains.

Roam a UNESCO World Heritage Wonders

Designated in 1979, Dinosaur Provincial Park in Alberta's rugged Badlands is more than just a stunning landscape. It's one of the world's richest sources of dinosaur fossils and a showcase of ongoing geological processes that continue to shape the planet. Wander among otherworldly hoodoos and ancient formations in a place where science and scenery collide.
