PRINT INFO

Think you know Canada's trails? Think again. Prince Edward Island offers a surprising world of red-soil paths, rolling farmlands, and coastal trails that few hikers have discovered.

Explore quiet sections of the Island Walk and Confederation Trail, wander PEI National Parks with their pristine beaches and protected sand dunes, and uncover scenic trails that reveal the island's natural beauty at every turn.

This tour takes you through all five of PEI's regions – North Cape, Green Gables Shore, Red Sands Shore, Points East, and Charlottetown – offering daily hikes and walks that let you experience the island like few visitors ever do. For active adults seeking charm, variety, and discovery, PEI is waiting to be explored.
