Follow one of the world's most iconic pilgrimage routes on a fully guided walking journey from Sarria to Santiago de Compostela. Designed to cover the final 100KM of the Camino

Francés, this experience offers a meaningful blend of cultural discovery, scenic walking, and personal achievement as you traverse the heart of rural Galicia.

Along the way, walk through peaceful forests, rolling farmland, and traditional villages that have welcomed pilgrims for centuries. Romanesque churches, stone bridges, and historic waymarkers tell the story of the Camino, while the rhythm of daily walking creates space for reflection and connection.

The adventure culminates in Santiago de Compostela, where you arrive at the magnificent cathedral in the historic UNESCO-listed city centre. The journey also includes an extension to the dramatic Atlantic coastline at Finisterre, long considered the symbolic “end of the world” and a traditional final step for many pilgrims.

This is more than a walking holiday, it is a rewarding and accessible pilgrimage experience combining comfort, culture, and achievement on one of Europe’s most celebrated routes.

Why This Tour is Great

Walk an Iconic Pilgrimage Route

Follow the legendary Camino de Santiago on a fully guided journey from Sarria to Santiago de Compostela, designed to cover the final 100 kilometres of the Camino Francés. Walk through peaceful forests, rolling farmland, and traditional Galician villages that have welcomed pilgrims for centuries, while enjoying a steady rhythm of travel that blends scenery, culture, and personal achievement.

A Fully Supported, Designed for Comfort

This is a thoughtfully organized journey with flights and all logistics handled, along with luggage transfers, comfortable accommodations, and the support of an experienced local guide throughout. With everything taken care of, you can simply enjoy the walking experience at a comfortable pace, focusing on the landscapes, the culture, and the sense of accomplishment each day brings.

The Camino Experience Extended to Finisterre

Your journey doesn't end in Santiago de Compostela. Continue on to Cape Finisterre on the dramatic Atlantic coast, long regarded as the symbolic "end of the world" and a traditional final step for pilgrims. Standing above the rugged coastline, you'll have time to reflect on your achievement while taking in one of Spain's most dramatic natural landscapes.

Stay: In flight

Meals: D (on plane)

Day 2: Welcome to Madrid

Arrive in Madrid, Spain's vibrant capital, renowned for its grand boulevards, elegant plazas, and lively café culture. Enjoy a guided walking tour and discover some of the city's iconic landmarks while learning about its rich history and traditions. The afternoon is at leisure to explore independently; perhaps visit a museum, relax in a park, or enjoy the city's atmosphere at a café terrace. In the evening, meet your fellow travellers for a welcome dinner and toast the beginning of your Camino journey.

Stay: Hotel Eurostars Plaza Mayor, Madrid, ES or similar (1 night)

Meals: B (on plane), D

Day 3: Madrid to Sarria

This morning, fly from Madrid to Santiago de Compostela. Upon arrival, meet your local guide and continue by coach into Galicia. Travel to Sarria, a charming town nestled among rolling green hills and the most popular starting point for pilgrims walking the final 100 kilometres of the Camino Francés. On arrival, check in to your hotel and enjoy a free evening as you prepare for the journey ahead.

Stay: Hotel Villa de Sarria, Sarria, ES or similar (1 night)

Meals: B

Day 4: Sarria to Morgade

(A1/Easy – 12km/250m)

Begin the day with breakfast before setting off on the first stage of Camino de Santiago journey, walking from Sarria to Morgade. Following quiet country lanes and shaded woodland paths, this scenic section winds through the heart of rural Galicia, passing stone villages, ancient churches, and rolling green landscapes. Along the way, your guide will share insights into the history, traditions, and enduring spirit of the Camino. Arrive in Morgade and settle into your accommodations, reflecting on a rewarding first day on the trail.

Stay: Casa Morgade, Morgade, ES or similar (1 night)

Meals: B, D

Day 5: Morgade to Portomarin

(A1/Easy – 10km/150m)

After breakfast, continue your Camino journey with your local guide, following quiet country roads and shaded paths beneath towering oak trees. Pass through picturesque villages and peaceful hamlets, where traditional Galician hórreos (raised granaries) dot the landscape. Along the way, visit the beautiful Romanesque Church of Barbadelo, a treasured landmark on the pilgrimage route. Arrive in the charming town of Portomarín, where you'll check in to your accommodations and enjoy an included dinner with your fellow travellers.

Day 7: Ventas de Narón to Palas de Reis

(A1+/Easy-Moderate – 11km/150m)

Following breakfast, continue your pilgrimage through the heart of rural Galicia as you walk from Ventas de Narón to Palas de Rei. Today's route takes you through peaceful woodland, open farmland, and small Galician villages that have welcomed pilgrims for centuries. Passing the highest point of the final 100 kilometres of the Camino Francés near Ligonde, enjoy sweeping views of the surrounding countryside before descending into the historic market town of Palas de Rei. This evening, enjoy an included dinner and reflect on another rewarding day on the trail.

Stay: Hotel Alda Palas de Reis, Palas de Reis, ES or similar (1 night)

Meal: B, D

Day 8: Palas de Reis to Melida

(A2/Moderate – 14km/250m)

Today's route follows a pleasant mix of forest paths, gravel tracks, and quiet rural roads through Galicia's rolling countryside. Pass through small hamlets and shaded woodland sections before crossing the medieval bridge at Furelos and entering the province of A Coruña. Along the way, stone crosses and traditional farmsteads mark the historic pilgrimage route. Enjoy the peaceful rhythm of the walk as you arrive in Melide, a lively Camino town renowned for its traditional Galician cuisine and welcoming atmosphere.

Stay: Carlos 96 Melide, Melide, ES or similar (1 night)

Meals: B, D

Day 9: Melide to Arzúa

(A1+/Easy to Moderate – 14km/200m)

Enjoy a relaxed and scenic day on the Camino as you follow a route through rural villages, woodland paths, and open countryside. Pass through the charming hamlets of Boente and Ribadiso, where stone bridges, traditional Galician architecture, and peaceful landscapes create one of the most picturesque sections of the pilgrimage. Arrive in Arzúa, a well-known Camino town famous for its locally produced cheese. Settle into your accommodation before gathering with your fellow travellers for an included dinner.

Stay: Hotel Arzua, Arzura, ES or similar (1 night)

Meals: B, D

Day 10: Arzúa to Pedrouzo-Rúa

(A2/Moderate – 19km/300m)

After breakfast, continue your Camino journey with your local guide, following forested paths, quiet country roads, and shaded trails beneath towering eucalyptus trees. Pass through peaceful hamlets and rolling farmland, where traditional Galician hórreos (raised granaries) and stone markers reflect centuries of pilgrimage history. Enjoy the gentle rhythm of the walk as Santiago de Compostela draws ever closer. Arrive in Pedrouzo-Rúa, where you'll check in to your accommodations and enjoy an included dinner with your fellow travellers.
