Day 5: The Queenstown Story, Blarney Castle & Stone, Free Time in Kinsale

After a lovely breakfast at the hotel, travel to Cobh, one of the main points of emigration during the great famine. Here you will visit “The Queenstown Story” which portrays the hardship of life onboard a ship as it sailed to the “New World”. Learn about Annie Moore, the first emigrant ever to be processed on Ellis Island, and Cobh’s ties to the Titanic. Then it’s off to Blarney Castle for the chance to kiss the famous Blarney Stone, said to “bestow the gift of eloquence on all those who dare”. As you make your way through the castle grounds, take some time to meander the Castle Gardens and Rock Close. Return to Kinsale for a free afternoon and evening to discover the town as you see fit.

Meals: B

Day 6: Skibbereen Heritage Centre, Kenmare, Ring of Kerry Drive

This morning, depart Kinsale and travel along the southern coastline to Skibbereen, stopping for a guided tour of the Skibbereen Heritage Centre. Skibbereen and the surrounding area suffered the most fatalities during the Great Famine of the 1840s and is the most significant town in Ireland in terms of famine heritage. Travel the coast via lovely, lazy towns & villages to Kenmare, an example of one of Ireland’s few planned towns, established in 1670. Kenmare and its Gaelic name, Neidin means little nest given because of its fine setting, nestled among the mountains of Cork and Kerry. Continue travelling to Killarney via the famous Ring of Kerry. This famous route shows off the spectacular landscapes of Ireland. Arrive in old town and check in to your historically charming hotel. Freshen up and enjoy a locally sourced dinner.

Stay: The International Hotel, Killarney, IE (2 nights)

Meals: B, D

Day 7: Dingle Peninsula, Brain de Staic Studio

Today, experience the unspoiled beauty of the Dingle Peninsula, once named the “Most Beautiful Place on Earth” by National Geographic. Visit a local artisan’s studio specializing in handcrafted Celtic jewelry, engraved with ancient symbols and the ogham alphabet, one of Ireland’s earliest forms of writing. Continue along the scenic Slea Head Drive, where sweeping Atlantic views reveal dramatic coastline and ancient beehive huts, early monastic settlements dating back over a thousand years ancient beehive huts, early monastic settlements dating back over a thousand years. Stop at Ireland's westernmost point for views of the Blasket Islands, made famous in films such as Ryan's Daughter, Far and Away, and Star Wars: The Last Jedi. Enjoy free time in the colourful town of Dingle for lunch, then return to Killarney for a free afternoon and evening to explore the town's lively nightlife.

Meals: B

Day 8: Shannon Ferry Ride, Cliffs of Moher, Overnight in a Castle!

After breakfast, bid farewell to Killarney and travel to Tralee, the capital town of County Kerry. Continue to Tarbert and board the Shannon Ferry, for a delightful ride across the Shannon Estuary to Killimer. From there, follow the coastal road to the majestic Cliffs of Moher, soaring up to 600 ft over the Atlantic Ocean. Take some free time to marvel at these iconic cliffs before continuing to the luxurious Dromoland Castle for an overnight stay. Built in the 16th century as the royal seat of the O'Brien clan, the castle was transformed into a luxury hotel in 1962 while preserving its historic charm. Throughout your stay, admire exquisite woodcarvings, stone statues, and elegant antique furnishings that reflect centuries of heritage. In the evening, dress in smart casual attire and prepare for a magical private dinner in the castle's exquisite Terrace Room.

After breakfast, visit Turlough Park House, a striking Victorian Gothic heritage building and home to the award-winning Museum of Country Life. Explore Ireland's rural past from the 1850s to the 1950s, discovering traditional trades, crafts, fashion, religion, and the nation's agricultural and maritime heritage. Continue to Drumcliffe in County Sligo, where St. Colmcille founded a monastery in the 6th century. Drumcliffe is also the final resting place of one of Ireland's greatest poets, William Butler Yeats (1865–1939), whose simple headstone bears the inscription, "Cast a cold eye on life, on death, horseman pass by." Next, stop in Belleek, renowned for its exquisite Parian China at Belleek Pottery, Ireland's oldest pottery. Following a guided tour, continue to Donegal for an overnight stay. Gather for dinner at your hotel to conclude a day steeped in Irish history and culture.

Stay: The Mill Park Hotel, Donegal (1 night)

Meals: B, D

Day 12: Derry, Antrim Coastal Drive, Giant's Causeway

This morning, travel to Derry City, perched on the banks of the River Foyle. Founded in 546 AD, the city still retains its impressive 17th-century walls. Pause to admire the modern Derry Peace Bridge, a 235-metre pedestrian crossing opened in 2011 that symbolically unites the two sides of a city once divided by centuries of conflict. Continue to Limavady and begin your journey along the scenic Antrim Coast Drive. No visit to Northern Ireland would be complete without seeing the Giant's Causeway, a striking natural wonder of approximately 37,000 interlocking basalt columns. Follow the coast road with its breathtaking views of the northern shoreline before arriving in Belfast for an overnight stay. Check in to your centrally located hotel, freshen up, and enjoy an included group dinner.

Stay: The Europa Hotel, Belfast, GB (1 night)

Meals: B, D

Day 13: Guided City Tour of Belfast, Titanic Belfast
