Day 2: Happy Thanksgiving, Trolley Tour, S.S. Keewatin, 1000 Island Dinner Cruise

Enjoy a relaxed start to your day before hopping aboard the iconic Kingston Trolley for a guided city tour. Discover the charm and history of Canada's first capital as you pass by major landmarks, scenic waterfronts, art galleries, and museums, from the comfort of your red trolley. Afterward, return to the hotel for a festive Thanksgiving lunch, complete with seasonal fun and cheerful company. In the afternoon, take a short walk to the waterfront to board the historic SS Keewatin, a beautifully preserved Edwardian-era passenger ship built in 1907. Explore its elegant staterooms, grand dining areas, and original woodwork during a guided tour and museum visit, discovering the fascinating history of this iconic Great Lakes liner. As evening falls, take a short walk to the waterfront and board a comfortable ship for a scenic Thanksgiving dinner cruise through the 1000 Islands. Indulge in a delicious holiday meal while admiring the breathtaking autumn colours reflected on the tranquil waters, a truly memorable way to celebrate the season.
