Ripley's Aquarium is an ideal place to spend the day for a change of pace from the beach. The aquarium has moving glide paths alongside rays and sea turtles, beautiful exotic fish and fascinating sea creatures.

Then, there are Legends in Concert and Margaritaville, highlights of South Carolina's award-winning entertainment district.

Stroll the 1/2 mile boardwalk along a lovely saltwater estuary; then continue into the heart of historic Murrells Inlet fishing village where you'll find the "seafood capital of South Carolina". The Marshwalk serves up live entertainment and savoury Lowcountry dishes set against rustling palmettos and golden grasses.

Myrtle Beach SkyWheel
One of the iconic features of the city scape is the SkyWheel. This 187 foot (57 m) tall Ferris wheel opened in 2011 and is the biggest Ferris wheel on the East Coast, with the highest view of its kind of the gorgeous Atlantic Ocean. The Myrtle Beach SkyWheel is a breathtaking attraction and the pride and joy of the 1.2-mile Boardwalk, where those not afraid of heights will be rewarded with a beautiful view of the city's skyline. And hey, if you are afraid of heights, be sure to stop off at the nearby RipTydz Oceanfront Grille and Rooftop Bar for a little liquid courage.

Broadway at the Beach, Barefoot Landing, Coastal Grand Mall, The Market Common and the Tanger Outlet Mall are just a few local options to find that perfect outfit, gifts for loved ones or just a few trinkets for yourself.
