PRINT INFO

Experience Nashville at its best, starting with a truly special night at the Grand Ole Opry. This legendary stage is celebrating Canadian country music with an all-Canadian lineup, hosted by Canada's own Terri Clark.

Known as Music City, USA, Nashville is where aspiring artists, songwriters, and fans come together, and where legends like Patsy Cline and Johnny Cash helped define the sound of country music. When you're not enjoying live performances, explore iconic landmarks and music museums, or head to "The District" for great dining, bar-hopping, and live music from day to night.

In Nashville, music is more than entertainment; it's the heartbeat of the city, and Canadians quickly feel right at home.
