Why This Tour is Great

The Gaylord Opryland Resort & Convention Center

The Gaylord Opryland at Christmastime is a sight to behold! In addition to offering the finest in Southern hospitality, the Gaylord is an attraction and destination in itself. Enter the Delta Atrium, and wander through acres of gardens and indoor plantings with spectacular decorations and millions of lights. Better still, take a ride on the Delta Riverboat and travel along the scenic river that meanders through the atrium. ICE! is an immersive experience among immense ice sculptures with a story-driven theme. To complete the festive offerings during holiday season, visitors to the Gaylord can experience a “Country Christmas Dinner Show”, an unforgettable evening of holiday music paired with a special meal crafted by award-winning chefs.

Nashville’s Music

In Nashville, the music scene is second to none and an integral part of this vibrant city. Visit legendary country music venues, and explore “The District” with its honky-tonks and live music. During the holiday season, listen for Christmas favourites performed with a Southern twist.

The Grand Ole Opry

This is "The Show that Made Country Music Famous," and no visit to Nashville is complete without seeing a show at The Grand Ole Opry. What began in 1925 as a one-hour radio “barn dance” has become a star-studded country music tradition and a milestone for every aspiring country artist.
