PRINT INFO

Québec's Eastern Townships are a tapestry of vineyards, pastoral vistas, rolling hills and mountains, and during the holidays, the region is a beautiful winter wonderland. Here you'll stay at a four-star resort, nestled near the base of Mount Orford. This leisurely Christmas getaway features excursions during the day, and in the evenings, cocktail receptions and special meals prepared for you to enjoy with fellow guests. If desired, you can experience a Christmas church service in French, and then, back at the resort, take part in some fun and games and Christmas cheer! Escape the ordinary, and, with new friends, enjoy the charm of rural Québec for the holidays.

Why This Tour is Great

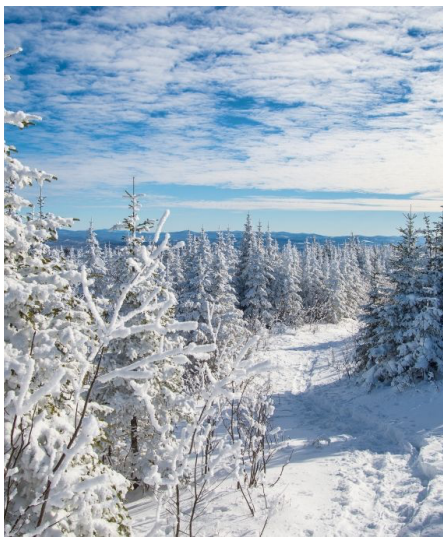

Spend the holidays with new friends!

Skip the hustle and bustle of the city, and celebrate Christmas in the countryside of rural Quebec. Meet new friends as you enjoy some festive fun including special surprises from Santa. With our group decked out in beautiful UGLY Christmas sweaters (don't forget yours!), together, we'll share some holiday cheer!

A Leisurely Getaway

During the day, get a taste of the local culture and meet a few entrepreneurs who proudly call this region home. In the evenings in Orford, get to know new friends during cocktail receptions, group dinners and enjoy live entertainment.
