Québec's beautiful Eastern Townships are a stunning blend of vineyards, picturesque country landscapes, mountains, and crystal-clear lakes. Located in southeastern Québec, this region consists of small cities, towns, and villages, each possessing its unique charm.

A significant part of the area's character is its proud artisans, eager to showcase their handcrafted products. Visit Saint-Benoît-du-Lac Abbey for traditionally made cheeses, spreads, and ciders. Learn about artisanal cheese-making with a tour and time to shop at the boutique. Stroll sweet-scented lavender fields to discover the many benefits of this fragrant plant and explore a bee farm, tasting pure, local honey.
