Escape from the usual routine and take a break in the beautiful Niagara region. Niagara-on-the-Lake is a charming destination year-round, with its boulevard gardens and vibrant floral displays. Stroll through the quaint heritage shopping district, where you can browse unique boutiques and cozy cafés. In the nearby Waterloo region, dive into the rich Mennonite history with a guided backroads tour, and be sure to stop by St. Jacobs Farmers' Market to discover fresh, local treasures.

The highlight of this getaway, however, is the excitement of live theatre. Feel the excitement build as the trumpet fanfare rings out at the Festival Theatre in Stratford, ushering you into a fantastic production of Annie. Then, head to the Shaw Festival Theatre for a captivating performance of Anything Goes, a timeless tale of romance, intrigue, and high-seas hijinks.

Why This Tour is Great

Live Theatre Performances

This tour “connects the dots” to include two wonderful performances in two different cities. We take care of the details so you can enjoy a relaxing getaway with the pleasure of experiencing live theatre. Performances at the iconic Festival Theatre in Stratford are always a treat, and in Niagara-on-the-Lake, the Shaw Festival Theatre has been a significant venue for over 50 years. With prime orchestra-level seats, experience the energy and the music of "Annie" and "Anything Goes".

The St. Jacobs Farmers' Market & Mennonite Culture

St. Jacobs Farmers' Market is a much-loved tradition in the Waterloo Region. Home to a large population of Old Order Mennonites, you'll often see farmers on local roads travelling to the market by horse & buggy. At the market, vendors sell a variety of items from food to art and collectibles ... "Local. Fresh. Original."

Dive deeper into the Mennonite community with a backroads tour, led by a local guide.

Day-to-Day Itinerary

Day 1: Travel to Niagara Region, Shaw Festival: Anything Goes

Board the coach and enjoy a short trip to beautiful Niagara-on-the-Lake, arriving mid-afternoon. Wander through the heritage district with its lush boulevard gardens and eclectic collection of boutiques, bistros, and galleries, or take the time to visit Fort George. Enjoy an included group dinner before walking to the Shaw Festival Theatre for a performance of Anything Goes, a delightful musical filled with love, mistaken identities, and vibrant characters aboard an ocean liner, all set to Cole Porter's timeless tunes.

Stay: The Old Stone Inn, Niagara Falls, Ontario (1 night)

Meals: D

Day 2: Piccard's Peanuts, St. Jacob's Farmers' Market, Stratford Festival: *Annie

After breakfast, stop at Piccard's Peanuts, Ontario's first peanut farming family, for some delicious treats. Then visit St. Jacobs Farmers' Market, Canada's largest. With over 300 vendors, the market offers fresh local produce, honey, maple syrup, preserves, baked goods, quality meats, and more directly from the farmers. Additional items, including housewares, hand-crafted wearables, and imported produce, can be found in the market's three main buildings and outdoor area. Take some time to freshen up before regrouping for an included dinner and a Stratford Festival production of Annie. Follow the story of an optimistic orphan's journey to find her parents, overcoming adversity with hope, resilience, and iconic songs.

Stay: The Hampton Inn & Suites, St. Jacobs, Ontario (1 night)

Meals: B, D

Day 3: Mennonite Tour

After breakfast, experience the rich heritage of Ontario's Mennonite community with a guided countryside tour. Learn the history, culture, and faith of the Mennonite and Amish communities in the Waterloo region. Visit the museum, a replica Old Order meetinghouse, and enjoy a special Mennonite lunch before making the journey home.
