13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

13^º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Greetings From Father Hector

Dear Friends,

This week our scriptures emphasize hospitality and commitment. The woman's hospitality toward the prophet brings her the reward of a child, and Jesus tells us that commitment to Him can be expressed in a simple act of hospitality. The following anecdote might bring this into clearer focus. "For several weeks, the first-grade class had waited for a field trip to the observatory. Everything was well organized and the children were told to bring along their lunch. Finally, the day arrived and the kids grabbed their lunches and lined up for the bus. But one boy began to cry because he had forgotten to bring a lunch and would have to stay. Within moments, the other children had contributed extra sandwiches, fruit, desserts, and drinks until the boy had a feast for his lunch. With tears of gratitude, he climbed onto the bus. The other children had given him a "cup of cold water." Acts of service and commitment are not always dramatic or earth-shattering. Simple caring is all that is needed. Discipleship means being alert for opportunities to care, to demonstrate God's loving-kindness, and to teach others to do the same". As we enter this new week, may our commitment to Christ be expressed through such simple acts of hospitality toward each other!

Have a blessed week,
Father Hector

Altar Flowers/Flores del Altar

The flowers on the altar this weekend are in celebration of the 50th Wedding Anniversary of Tom and Norma Anderson on June 26.

Tom and Norma have been longtime parishioners and active members of the St. Paul community.

Please join us in congratulating them on this special milestone and wishing them God's continued blessings.

Las flores del altar este fin de semana se ofrecen en celebración del 50.º Aniversario de Bodas de

Tom y Norma Anderson, celebrado el 26 de Junio.

Tom y Norma han sido feligreses de nuestra parroquia durante muchos años y miembros activos de la comunidad de St. Paul.

Acompañennos a felicitarlos por este acontecimiento tan especial y a desearles que Dios continúe bendiciéndolos abundantemente.

Saludos de Padre Hector

Queridos amigos:

Esta semana, las lecturas bíblicas hacen hincapié en la hospitalidad y en el compromiso. La hospitalidad de la mujer hacia el profeta le granjea la recompensa de tener un hijo, y Jesús nos dice que el compromiso con Él puede expresarse mediante un sencillo acto de hospitalidad. La siguiente anécdota puede ayudarnos a visualizar esto con mayor claridad: «Durante varias semanas, la clase de primer grado había esperado con ilusión una excursión al observatorio. Todo estaba bien organizado y se había pedido a los niños que llevaran su almuerzo. Por fin llegó el día; los niños tomaron sus almuerzos y formaron una fila para subir al autobús. Sin embargo, un niño rompió a llorar porque había olvidado traer comida y tendría que quedarse atrás. En cuestión de momentos, los demás niños aportaron sándwiches, fruta, postres y bebidas adicionales, hasta que el niño tuvo un verdadero banquete para almorzar. Con lágrimas de gratitud, subió al autobús. Sus compañeros le habían ofrecido un "vaso de agua fresca". Los actos de servicio y compromiso no siempre tienen que ser espectaculares o extraordinarios; basta con un sencillo gesto de atención y cuidado hacia los demás. Ser discípulo significa estar atento a las oportunidades para cuidar del prójimo, manifestar la amorosa bondad de Dios y enseñar a otros a hacer lo mismo». Al comenzar esta nueva semana, ¡que nuestro compromiso con Cristo se exprese a través de sencillos actos de hospitalidad los unos con los otros!

Que tengan una semana bendecida,
Padre Héctor

Welcome Lisa McAdams to St. Paul Parish

We are happy to welcome Lisa McAdams to our parish staff. Lisa has been working within the Diocese of Austin for nearly 12 years, serving as St. John Neumann Catholic Church's staff accountant for almost 4 years and most recently as St. Theresa Catholic Church & School's Finance Officer for more than 7.5 years. Lisa lives in Buda with her husband, Kevin, and their dogs, Penny and Sally, and their cats, Nickel and Linus.

Lisa is the second of four children and is a proud Army Brat, having grown up in both Texas and Germany over her father's 26+ year career. Lisa's parents and siblings are all in the Austin area, so she and her husband are able to spend time with family and cheer on her niece and nephews in their youth sports. She is excited to join the St. Paul community.

Parish Congratulations and Blessings

On June 16, the biennial Lumen Gentium Awards were celebrated at the May born Center in Temple.

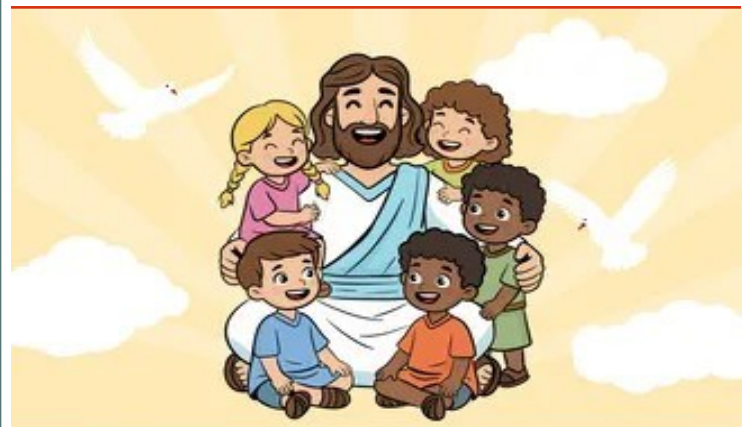

Lumen Gentium—Latin for “Light of Christ”—recognizes individuals whose faith, service, and commitment shine brightly in their parish and throughout the Diocese. We are proud to share that Kathy and Tom Natholi of St. Paul Parish were among this year’s recipients. Their outstanding dedication to our parish, active involvement in numerous ministries, and generous service have been a blessing to our community. Tom’s leadership in guiding the new church building project has been especially significant and greatly appreciated. Thank you, Kathy and Tom, for being true examples of the Light of Christ through your faithful service.

May God continue to bless you both!

We give thanks for a joyful and faith-filled week of Vacation Bible School! Our children, volunteers, and families came together to grow in faith, friendship, and love for Christ. Thank you to everyone who made this week such a wonderful success.
