Greetings From Father Hector

Dear Friends,

July invites us to count the many blessings God has bestowed on us as individuals and as a country. The slower summer rhythm might lull us into neglecting the powerful seed of faith that God offers us through the sacraments. Even as vacations and family gatherings fill our days, the Eucharist should remain the center of our lives. It is the seed that was sown by God in the good ground of our hearts that will yield a fruitful harvest. We celebrated our nation's 250th Anniversary this 4th of July, and joined millions of Americans in thanking God for the gift of freedom and for the blessings bestowed upon our country. The freedom we enjoy as Americans carries with it the responsibility to serve one another in love, to defend the dignity of every human person, to promote justice, and to work tirelessly for peace and the common good. An old Indian proverb says, "All of the flowers of all the tomorrows are in the seeds of today." We have been called to plant the seeds of today. Without our effort God will not do anything in our lives. He needs our co-operation and sustained efforts to produce the flowers of peace, justice and kindness in plenty for the many tomorrows. We have been given a wonderful vocation, to be co-creators with God, to multiply the fruits of the earth and sustain creation for ourselves and others. Continue enjoying your summer!

Saludos de Padre Hector

Queridos amigos:

Julio nos invita a contar las muchas bendiciones que Dios nos ha concedido, tanto a nivel individual como nacional. El ritmo más pausado del verano podría llevarnos a descuidar la poderosa semilla de fe que Dios nos ofrece a través de los sacramentos. Aun cuando las vacaciones y las reuniones familiares ocupan nuestros días, la Eucaristía debe seguir siendo el centro de nuestra vida. Es la semilla que Dios sembró en la buena tierra de nuestros corazones y que dará una cosecha abundante. Este 4 de julio celebramos el 250.º aniversario de nuestra nación y nos unimos a millones de estadounidenses para dar gracias a Dios por el don de la libertad y por las bendiciones derramadas sobre nuestro país. La libertad de la que gozamos como estadounidenses conlleva la responsabilidad de servirnos mutuamente con amor, defender la dignidad de toda persona, promover la justicia y trabajar incansablemente por la paz y el bien común. Un antiguo proverbio indígena dice: «Todas las flores de todos los mañanas están en las semillas de hoy». Hemos sido llamados a sembrar las semillas de hoy. Sin nuestro esfuerzo, Dios no hará nada en nuestras vidas; Él necesita nuestra cooperación y nuestros esfuerzos constantes para producir flores de paz, justicia y bondad en abundancia para los muchos mañanas que vendrán. Hemos recibido una vocación maravillosa: ser cocreadores con Dios, multiplicar los frutos de la tierra y sostener la creación para nosotros y para los demás. ¡Sigán disfrutando del verano!
