Welcome to the June edition

Well, in the words of the song, June is bursting out all over. Trees, birds, animals making the most of this first month of Summer, together with hay timing it's busy. This year the Summer Solstice is on June 21. The longest day of the year - when night and day are of equal lengths. (The actual solstice depends on when the sun is at its northernmost point; it shifts between June 20, 21, and 22.)

This was a very important event in distant times when to survive Winter, with its deadly weather and shortage of food was never a certainty. Ancient man living by the time of the seasons erected stone circles also called henges. Although it is unknown the purpose served by these circles, many people gather yearly to mark the Solstice, to see the first ray of sun touch the stones. Cumbria has many sites showing evidence of Ancient Man and we are very fortunate to live in such a haven of history. By the way, stone circles have nothing to do with Druids. They arrived about 4000 years too late…!

Next month's Way Magazine will be the Summer double edition. Please make sure that you send all events and happenings for both July and August. As you will appreciate, this will require double the editing effort so if you could try to get these to us as early as possible we would be very grateful!

Please send all entries for the July and August edition to thewayeditor305@gmail.com by Tuesday 20th June at the latest.

These need to be in Word format. Please remember that we can only print in black and white and offerings are easier to manage if they have no borders or large pictures. We will endeavour to include all of your articles and news and don't forget your letters to the editor!

Oh no!! Colin's off already! I'm not going to run after him today; I've heard they're cooking burgers somewhere so think I'll just go and hide under a table and see if anything tasty falls my way. Hope Colin doesn't see me!!!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor

Do you know whether the Courgette Grand Prix will be running again this year? The ones I am growing on my allotment are promising to be very aerodynamic but I need to get the timing right for cropping so that I don't miss out!

Veggie Racer

Dear Veggie Racer

We have made contact with the organisers and yes, not only will the Courgette Grand Prix run again in September, but we are told that it will be even bigger and better! The full entry requirements and rules of engagement will be published in next month's magazine.

Dear Editor

As a regular visitor to the area and reader of your magazine, may I ask if it is possible for you to add details of Roman Catholic services along with the CofE and Methodist ones?

A Reader

Dear Readers all

We haven't managed to find a direct contact within the area who is able to supply this information other than reference to "shared services" at Kirkby Stephen Parish Church. If you can help, please send an email to thewayeditor305@gmail.com and we will try to include this in the future. Many thanks.

STAR OF THE MONTH

David Williams has sent the impressive figures for the Great North Air Ambulance collection from April;

"Once again, thanks to all of you who brought in stuff to help the GNAA's finances. The weight totalled 665 kilos, nearly 50 kilos more than the collection in November. At the current value of £1 per kilo, you can easily work out what it would be worth to the Service. So my, and their, thanks to you all."

In truth, this is all down to David who does all the organisation and makes all the arrangements for this single-handed. Without him this wouldn't happen and this great cause would not benefit so well from local people. We all know how much support you give to the Brough community so, David, this is us thanking you for all you have done and all you continue to do. Brough owes you much and we salute you!

This is an apology from us to Catherine from Stainmore who we accidentally missed on our list of distributors last month! On the plus side, though, you now have a "star box" all to yourself… This is your personal thank you from all of us.

Brough Farmers and Artisans Market May 2023

A beautiful sunny day to mark our last market… of Spring! In the timeless way of the real country people moseyed in, chatting to friends, stallholders, dogs, rabbits. It was all very mañana! There was a strange moment when three couples arrived for the auditions (mentioned last month). The ladies looking very exposed in bikinis, the men in staggering speedos. When it was pointed out the casting for Vera was out of our hands, the group turned a bit sniffy and said "Oh! Well then! What a cheat! It's a splash in the Swindale instead!" Eden Animal Rescue, serving teas and coffee and a biscuit for £2, warned the group not to disturb the nesting water fowl. Alan Roberts and Laura, his dark room assistant, were detailed to get photographic evidence of any misdoings.

The morning drifted on lazy-day fashion. Carola Frank fused glass fruit bowls to order on her stall while visitors to Brough gasped, peering through sunglasses at the sparkling beauties. Addie's String Along was busy creating Swarovski Crystal dog collars…the new vicar looked interested. Kind and Loving Soaps got into a scented lather, she'd hiccupped while putting a cake of soap into a paper bag… Luckily, Jenny Dunne, our knowledgeable pharmacist, sorted the problem while dealing with orders for her bespoke biscuits. The designs are gorgeous and fully eatable! As usual Neil had everything you could possible need/ want and he watched, smirking, as the CPR took place.

Now what else happened? Oh yes, I'd forgotten, towards midday, (by the way, has anyone noticed the village clock's been nicked…?) a whisper went around, Tony Holland (Outdoor Bred Beef, Lamb and Pork) was having a VERY special day, his son's present was a 70-hand shire horse and a Stetson. Ably lead by David Knipe beating time with a drumstick, after the Market our usual gang did a rugby scrum around Tony sang "Happy Birthday" and "We'll Meet Again" and tossed him into The Bay to check his new speedos… a birthday present from his wife.

Next Market 17 June 9 - Midday

News from our local Scouts

The 1st Kirkby Stephen scouts have been really busy recently with camps, trips out and lots of adventures with heaps of discovery, learning and fun being enjoyed by our youngsters. We are very fortunate to have a brilliant team of volunteers at Kirkby who support and help all of our Scouts. The whole group recently went on a camp to Little Dale in North Lancashire where they took part in a number of exciting activities including building ziplines and camp fire cooking. We have also been on caving expeditions and hike camps recently.

As well as always looking for new young people to join in our action-packed groups we are urgently seeking new adult volunteers to help keep our local Scouts running. As described by The Scout Association, volunteering can be a brilliant way to boost your mental wellbeing. It's a great feeling knowing you're helping young people get skills for life, and you might even learn a lot about yourself along the way. If you have even a little time to spare please get in touch via edenscouts.org.uk

Cubs and Scouts meet on every other Friday evening at The Methodist Hall, Kirkby Stephen and Beavers currently meet there on Saturdays although this may change.

THANK YOU!

Some of you will already know, as we featured in the Coronation edition of The Herald, that we were privileged to be invited to a Buckingham Palace Garden Party at the beginning of May. We were delighted to be representatives of our local community and all the generous people who leave things, mostly anonymously, in our porch for us to re-home. It was quite an occasion with over 7,000 people attending and although we couldn't get near enough to see the King and Queen, we wouldn't have missed the event for the world. Thank you in particular to the kind lady from Brough who nominated us.

We recently sent a car load of clothes, blankets, sleeping bags and toiletries etc. to Thirsk where Yorkshire to Ukraine has its headquarters. We have a friend from Thirsk who regularly visits family in Kirkby Stephen and is happy to be the delivery man! He was agreeably surprised at how much he had to squeeze into the car!! We are also supporting local charitable causes whenever possible.

If you would like to join us on Thursday mornings from 9 - 10am we would be pleased to see you at our Produce Point. Do come and help yourself to the donated food and then join us for tea or coffee and a chat if you have time.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact us;

BROUGH PARISH COUNCIL 18 May 2023

Co-option of Councillors. Applications have been received from Clare Birkbeck and Dawn Henderson. Mrs Birkbeck and Ms Henderson were co-opted as Councillors unanimously. They took up their positions immediately, having signed the Declaration of Acceptance of Office.

W&FC Councillors, Cllr Simpkins informed the Meeting of progress with the new Westmorland & Furness Council. Cllr Simpkins is Chair of the Planning Committee. Cllr Simpkins also reported that he had requested signs on the A66 to prevent vehicles being directed by satnavs onto inappropriate routes, notably when the A66 is closed due to adverse weather or accidents.

Brough Clock and Clock Tower – the Chair updated the Council on progress with the planned work on the clock and clock tower. Scaffolding had been erected and the clock removed for refurbishment. The next steps would be to re-point the tower and rectify problems with the door and other wooden elements of the tower and it was hoped that work could be completed within a four to five week timescale.

Outdoor Gym – the Chair reported that work on the planned outdoor gym was moving forward and David Ellwood was helping to prepare the ground for the installation of the gym equipment. It is hoped that installation of the gym equipment will begin on Tuesday 23 May 2023 and completed within the week. Cllr Ellwood suggested that appropriate seating be placed in the area, and Members agreed that this should be looked at and incorporated into a wider review of seats and benches across the parish once the work on the clock and the gym has been completed.

This is a brief summary of the meeting. For more details or further information contact Mr Andrew Bedford on 017683 42394 or you are very welcome to attend the meetings. The next meeting will be held on Thursday 20th July 2023 in The Methodist Church, High St. Brough. CA17 4BY at 7pm. Information is also available at www.brough-cumbria.info website.

Pauline Capstick

Westmorland & Furness Council

Should any resident have an issue they wish to discuss or need assistance with I am your local Councillor and happy to assist. My name and contact details are as follows: Graham Simpkins Phone 01768 807634 my Mobile 0779 592 5163. I can also usually be contacted at Produce Point at Longway on Thursday mornings. Hopefully you will start to see positive evidence of the new Council's efforts; they do say a new broom sweeps clean! Many will have noticed the new road markings around the junction of Musgrave Lane and Main Street this is to increase visibility for motorists at the junction in readiness for the bollards being installed in Back Lane. Back Lane will shortly become a through route for pedestrians and cyclists only providing a safer route for all, but particularly youngsters accessing school. Another recent success is the bus fare price cap, a single journey currently cost a maximum of £2 and this has been extended until October at which point the maximum single fare will rise to £2.50 and this will continue until November 2024 there has never been a better time to give the bus a try!

Following a short Business Meeting which included plans for the CWFWI Art Show in Appleby and the Table top sale at Warcop Parish Hall Mrs Brook was pleased to welcome Mr David Barker. David gave us a very interesting talk about the origin and early years of the Ordnance Survey. David had always had a fascination for maps and on leaving school started work with the Ordnance Survey which was linked to the Army and worked at NATO HQ in Fontainebleau in the map store.

David brought along examples of his own mapping skills and said that it had taken 2 months to complete a set of 4 plates drawn by hand. We were certainly impressed. Mrs Brook gave the vote of thanks.

The date of our next meeting is Wednesday 14th June at Warcop Parish Hall at 7.30pm. Our guest speaker is Becky Woolstonholme Chief Executive of Cumbria Youth Alliance.

At our May meeting, we celebrated the Coronation of Charles III. One of our members had recently attended a Royal Garden Party, and she entertained us with photos and tales of her Royal Day Out.

Thanks, Heather and Graham Simpkins! We also brought along any royal memorabilia which we had collected over the years. We then drank a toast to the new King, followed by a delicious meal, supplied by our members. We enjoyed a lovely evening, with lots of chat and laughter.

In our business meeting, held before our Celebration, we endorsed the resolution which is to go forward to our national Federation. That resolution is 'Clean Rivers for People and Wildlife', a cause which is very important in a beautiful area like Eden, as well as the whole of the U.K.

We are now looking forward to our trip to Lowther to see the display of ceramic daffodils, many of which have been made by members of WIs and other organisations all over Cumbria.

If you would like to come along and meet us, you can come along to three meetings without charge. Please contact Lorraine on 07966067869

MUSGRAVE

Musgrave Village Institute

The Institute Committee and the Parish Council would like to thank everyone who made our Parish Tea on Sunday into such a success. The Coronation was celebrated in style with lovely food, good conversation, and good entertainment. Thanks to everyone involved in producing the food, dressing the hall, arranging the photographs, and of course the Parish Council for funding it! Thanks to David Ewin for the technical stuff, and the quiz, and the singer Diana Denney, we enjoyed singing along with her.

Our next event is the legendary Duck Race and Barbecue on 6th August, we will be selling ducks before too long. Look out for the posters.

After that, on August 27th, we will be holding our annual show. The schedules are currently being produced, and will be available from local shops in Brough and Kirkby Stephen. Look out for them from the end of June. If anyone has a cup which they won last year, we now need them back (cleaned!), you can return them to Karen Brownrigg at The Grange, Great Musgrave, tel. 07734229222 as soon as possible. Entries should also be returned to this address. Go on, have a go, there are categories for everyone. It is a fun show, although we all like to win! All the information will be on the schedules.

A WAY WITH PETER
A River Eden Ramble

This walk is short at just over 3 miles and is ideal for a family outing. It is full of interest and should be savoured rather than rushed!

Park in Kirkby Stephen and from the Cloisters head down to the River Eden, go over Frank's Bridge and turn right on The Coast-to-Coast route. In 300m go through the gate (779087) and turn right across the field to Podgill. Look out for wildlife on the river, there are kingfishers and dippers to be seen.

Go through the wood via Podgill bridge, keep an eye out for red squirrels. Stay on the path when leaving the wood, (do not climb the wall). The path can be muddy and overgrown at times. After 300m take a right (778078) past a barn, then cross the Eden again. It is left from the bridge following the Eden to Stenkrith Park, (perfect for picnics here). Pass through the Park (optional paddling) and as you reach the gate by the main road take the left track, then cross the superb Millennium Bridge. Turn left onto the disused line and look out for the poetry stones. Follow the line over 2 spectacular viaducts designed by Thomas Bouch who also designed the ill-fated Tay Bridge.

The path eventually drops to the road which is taken steeply down to Hartley. Just after the 30mph signs, cross the stream by the fine stone bridge, up to the road and take the first left (783086) back to the start at Kirkby Stephen.

The plague at Brough and Warcop 1597 – 1598

Contrary to tradition, this was not the Bubonic Plague (swellings in the glands) but the Bleeding Plague (breakdown of the blood's arteries and of internal organs). It appeared suddenly in a patient in small swellings that soon grew bigger with pain and burning and thirst unbearable. They died of it in 3 – 5 days, their innards liquified. A few survived.

It arrived in Penrith in September 1597 via a man from Richmond coming up Swaledale; he died and was buried with it on 22nd September. It also broke out in Appleby, Kendal and Carlisle. It appeared at Bleatarn (Warcop) with burials from 19 October 1597 – 6th June 1598 and Brough with burials from 10th November 1597 – 30th July 1598.

It was spread by droplets ("Atishoo! Atishoo! We all fall down) not fleas. "Ring, a ring of roses" were the fatal marks, the spots of various colours. "A pocket full of posies" refers to the medical herbs thought to protect you. Some died suddenly as in the rhyme above. It broke out in towns and villages alike. There was no cure.

At Warcop, the vicar was just settling in – he came in 1597 and died in harness there in 1625, the Rev. Richard Jaques by name. The baptisms have been printed for 1597 (start of Register) to 1744; a copy is in Penrith library.

On 17th October 1597, Adam Mosse's son Michell (Michael) was buried. Two days later, on the 19th, Adam himself and two of his children (not named here) were buried "which died upon the Plague as it was thought" by which it appears that the Plague was infrequent in Bleatarn. 16 days went by without any more cases (this often happened at the start of an outbreak), and then on 4th November "Margaret Mosse and Agnes Lancaster died of the Plague and [each] was buryed in a garth at Blatarne" (A garth is a small plot, fenced or walled, near the house). "Blatarne" is its then pronunciation.

Winters in the 1590s were long and bitter. The Plague germs went dormant till Spring's warmth returned. In 1598 in Bleatarn this was in late May. On 25th May 1598, "Richard Lancaster and his wife Jennet (Janet) Wilson died both so daynely (suddenly) upon the Plague as it was thought and were buried in their own yeard (yard) at Blatarne" ie behind the house, keeping the infection to themselves.

"On 6th June died Thomas, son of Richard Lancaster of Blatarne, and the barn wherein he died (was) burned and the corps(e) afterwards interred"; a drastic act indeed but it did the trick; no more cases followed. The burial was in Warcop Churchyard. Warcop itself had no cases.

At 25th May 1598 the wife's maiden name is given. This was normal practice in Scotland, but in England implies non – marriage. However, these two were as the Warcop Register shows; "Richard Lancaster of Blatarne and Jennet Wilson of Crosbie Garrit were married". Normally, marriage was in the bride's Parish Church (her parents paid for food afterwards). We're unlikely to discover why she went to his for it.

Memories of Stainmore

"I was 11 years old when we moved to Borren House and the school was burned down in 1925. I can clearly remember Mr Kit Bowron from Mouthlock Farm coming in the early hours and calling up to the bedroom windows 'The school's on fire, John' and all was hustle and bustle after that. We had a very large water butt at Borren House and Edna Whitfield and I carried buckets of water to the school until the fire engine arrived. Mother and I made the firemen a meal and the leading fireman was a Mr George Evans from Appleby.

The school was razed to the ground but they saved St Stephen's Church which was joined to it. The children were taught in Mouthlock Chapel Sunday School until the school was rebuilt."

'Stainmore Local History project' starts at 1pm on Friday 9th June at Stainmore Parish Hall. We are gathering information about the buildings, the original families, the railways and mines that we know existed in the local area.

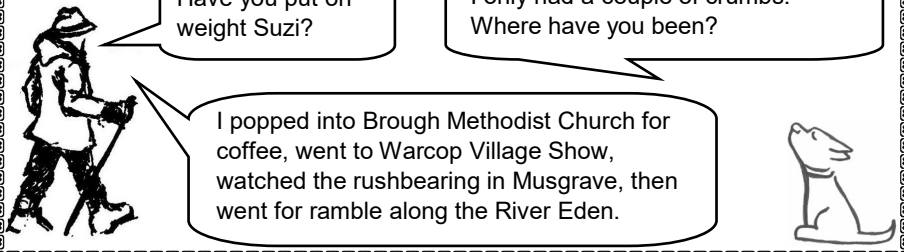

If anyone has any old photos, stories or objects that can prompt memories, or can put us in touch with any of the people who were past residents, or even children at the two Stainmore schools, we'd love to hear from you. Come and tell us your stories - any Friday afternoon between 1pm and 4pm and have a cup of tea with us.
