JAN 10th STORYLINES

- Utah Stars Elite: Put all teams on notice. Statement wins over top-tier competition Salt Lake Sonics and Utah Prospects.
- Utah Prospects 2031 : If you haven't seen this team play, you are in for a treat led by big man Mojwok. Some believe they could contend for the 8th grade title if they were allowed to play up.
- Idaho Teams: Showed up strong in their first Youngblood appearance of the year. Heat Check 7th, Uptempo 6th, and Idaho Flite 6th all finished the weekend undefeated.

Coaches Corner:

"Youngblood League is high level basketball with excellent play and great coaching. This league prepares players for the next level"

-DI College Basketball Coach

TEAM SPOTLIGHT

Heat Check (ID) 7th: After winning just one game in Youngblood last year, this team has turned the page. Coached by former BYU great Mark Bigalow, a revamped roster came out eager to prove they belong with Utah's best, going 3-0 in their opening week.

Utah Stealth: Every team is gunning for them, yet they quietly keep winning, even playing up a grade this week. They have one mission to bring home the Championship again.

Real Athlete (Future) 5th: They may have lost in the Pre-Season Challenge, but they're sending a clear message: the Youngblood League championship still runs through them. They kick off the season 4-0.

KEY MATCHUPS - JAN 17TH

5th Grade:

Salt City Hustle vs Utah Tigers

With high-energy coaches leading the way, expect a battle that won't end until the final whistle.

6th Grade:

Utah Stars vs Utah Flight

Both teams are ready to battle and reclaim the form that made them contenders last season.

7th Grade:

Utah Magic vs Utah Notes

The Magic are likely title contenders, but can the Notes show they should be in the conversation too.

8th Grade:

Utah Prospects 14U vs Fantomz

After falling to the Champs, they now face the upstart Fantomz 8th, who have impressed during the first two weeks of the league. This matchup will be a major test for both teams.

Congratulations:

- BYU close rivalry win over Utah.
- Utah State blow out win over Boise State.
- Utah Valley big win over Utah Tech
