

Torah Reading Schedule Aviv 2026-27

Parashah Numbers (P-n) in the schedule identify the Torah portion read on each Shabbat. This schedule follows long-established Jewish tradition, enabling the complete reading of the Torah of Moshe within a single calendar year.

Readings from the Prophets and the New Covenant writings of the B'rit Hadashah are selected to correspond with the theme of each weekly parashah.

In a standard twelve-month year, several double parashot are read, allowing all 54 portions to be completed within a 52-week cycle. In Hebraic leap years, each parashah is read separately, as the additional weeks accommodate the Mo'adim and other designated observances.
