

TrialReady Mobile Clinical Services

What to Expect During Your Visit

Welcome to a concierge-level in-home experience designed around comfort, privacy, and exceptional clinical precision. At TrialReady, every detail of your visit is crafted to feel effortless, professional, and personalized—because your time and well-being matter.

Before Your Appointment

- You will receive a confirmation message with your appointment window and any pre-visit instructions.
- Your phlebotomist arrives fully prepared with all supplies required for your collection—no preparation needed on your end.
- If your test requires fasting, you will be reminded 24 hours in advance.

During Your Appointment

Your concierge phlebotomy experience includes:

- A discreet, respectful arrival and identity verification.
- A calm, unhurried setup to maintain your comfort.
- Gentle, expert venipuncture with techniques tailored for comfort—even for difficult veins or faint-prone patients.
- White-glove handling of all specimens, including centrifugation, aliquoting, temperature control, and secure packaging.

After Your Collection

- TrialReady personally transports your samples to your physician's preferred laboratory (Quest, LabCorp, or hospital system).
- You receive confirmation once specimens are delivered.
- Your provider receives results directly from the testing laboratory.
- No additional steps are required from you.
