

FACULTY OF EDUCATION

Conduct Moderation of Outcome-Based Assessments

Qualify as a Moderator with the credit-bearing course Conduct Moderation of Outcome-Based Assessment: Moderator. Develop the skills to ensure quality assurance in outcomes-based assessments. This course is an excellent choice if you have completed the Assessor course and seek to expand your expertise for a Moderator role. Expand your career opportunities by enrolling in this valuable course. Note that this is a single unit standard course and not a full qualification.

Course code:

EDU601

Accreditation status:

- Fully accredited by ETDP SETA
- Credit-bearing course, verified and certified by the ETDP SETA.
- SAQA ID: 115759
- NQF Level 6 (10 credits)

Duration:

3 months

Entry requirements:

• Unit standard 115753 Experience or qualification in an area of expertise

Topics covered:

- · Demonstrate an understanding of moderation within the context of an outcomes-based assessment system
- Plan and prepare for moderation
- Conduct moderation
- Advise and support Assessors
- · Report, record and administer moderation
- Review moderation systems and processes

Assessments:

• Students will be required to submit a Portfolio of Evidence (PoE). This will include Formative and Summative assessments.

Type of certificate awarded:

Upon completion of this course students will receive a unit standard completion certificate from Waterfall School of Business.

Once externally verified a statement of results will be issued by the ETDP SETA.

