

FACULTY OF EDUCATION

Conduct Outcome-Based Assessments

Become a skilled Assessor with the credit-bearing course Conduct Outcome-Based Assessment. This comprehensive program prepares you to conduct outcomes-based assessments effectively. Ideal if you aspire to work as an Assessor in the South African education sector. Take the first step towards a rewarding career by enrolling in this course.

Note that this is a single unit standard course and not a full qualification.

Course code:

EDU501

Accreditation status:

- · Fully accredited with the ETDP SETA
- · Credit-bearing course, verified and certified by the ETDP SETA
- SAQA ID: 115753
- NQF Level 5 (15 credits)

Duration:

3 months

Entry requirements:

· Communication skills NQF level 4 Experience or qualification in an area of expertise

Topics covered:

- · Demonstrate understanding of outcomes-based assessment
- Prepare for assessments
- Conduct assessments
- · Provide feedback on assessments
- Review assessments

Assessments:

• Students will be required to submit a Portfolio of Evidence (PoE). This will include Formative and Summative assessments.

Type of certificate awarded:

Upon completion of this course students will receive a unit standard completion certificate from Waterfall School of Business.

Once externally verified a statement of results will be issued by the ETDP SETA.

